Action, reaction inevitable: CM on moral policing

Says one shouldn't hurt society's sentiments

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mangaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who had said his government will deal with 'moral policing' with an iron hand following an incident in Bengaluru a month ago, did a volte-face in Mangaluru on Wednesday saying, "Action and reaction are bound to happen when there is no morality in society."

When reporters sought his reaction to BJP MLA Umanath Kotian escorting two persons accused in a 'moral policing' incident from a police station after their release on interim bail, the chief minister refused to give a direct reply and said, "It is a sensitive matter. There are many sentiments in society. One needs to behave in a manner that will not hurt such sentiments. If the sentiments are hurt, then action and reaction are bound to happen."

In the same breath, he said that apart from maintaining law and order, maintaining social harmony is also the government's responsibility and appealed to everyone to cooperate with the government. "Youth should behave so as not to hurt the sentiments of society. This is a social issue," he stated.

SIDDU SLAMS BOMMAI

Leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah has strongly criticised CM Basavaraj Bommai for his remarks on moral policing, saying that the government is trying to protect anti-social elements instead of putting them behind bars. Former High Court judge Justice Nagamohan Das and activist Vinay Sreenivasa said that instead of condemning moral policing, the CM is attempting to justify it. P4

RIL concedes its Zeel, not interested now

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

AFTER its name was dragged into the boardroom battle between Zee Entertainment Enterprises Ltd (ZEEL) and Invesco Developing Markets Fund, Reliance Industries (RIL) on Wednesday revealed that it had proposed to merge its media properties with Zee at "fair valuations" but never resorted to any hostile transaction.

"The valuations of Zee and our properties were arrived at based on the same parameters," an RIL statement read. It also clarified that differences arose between ZEEL MD Punit Goenka and Invesco over the founders' bid to raise stake by subscribing to preferential warrants, following which the merger plan was dropped.

Earlier on Wednesday, Invesco said it had tried facilitating a Reliance-Zee deal. "The role of Invesco, as Zee's single largest shareholder, was to help facilitate that potential transaction and nothing more," it said, responding to Goenka's charge that it tried to push a one-sided deal. Though Zee had not mentioned Reliance in its statement to exchanges on Tuesday, it talked about two Invesco representatives presenting a deal to Goenka "involving the merger of the Company and certain entities owned by a large Indian group (strategic group)".

"As per the deal presented to me, upon completion of the aforesaid merger, the Strategic Group would hold majority stake of the merged entity and I would be responsible for running the operations of the merged entity as its MD and CEO," Goenka said, adding the deal was not in the best interest of public shareholders and he was uncomfortable with the way Invesco was pushing the deal.

According to Zee, Reliance's deal valued its shares at ₹220 apiece, with total valuation of the public shareholding of the company at ₹21,129 crore.

CENTRE LOOKS AT CORPORATE FUNDING TO PROTECT WILDLIFE?

RICHA SHARMA @ New Delhi

IN a move that could open up the country's over 700 protected and wildlife areas to the private sector, the Union environment ministry is exploring options to seek corporate funding for the management of wildlife protected areas like national parks and sanctuaries due to inadequate budgetary funding.

The ministry is considering a proposal to establish a National Foundation for Resource Mobilization for Wildlife Conservation (NFRMWC) to raise funds. The matter was placed before the meeting of the Standing Committee of the National Board for Wildlife (NBWL) last month held under the chairmanship of environment minister Bhupender Yadav. He advised wider consultation on the matter.

Cautioning the ministry over the move, NBWL member Dr R Sukumar said care should be taken to ensure that the corporate sector does not have a disproportionate say in the decision making process of the trust.

The NFRMWC is envisaged as a Government-owned public trust, which will be registered under the Societies Act. It is expected to provide a range of activities for private or corporate funding and will have flexibility in terms of resource mobilisation, operations and collaboration with other organisations for the purpose of wildlife conservation, including zoos.

Audi driver shoots at bike rider

ENS @Bengaluru

IN a case of extreme road rage, the driver of an Audi car pulled out a firearm and shot at a biker in Bengaluru on Wednesday night. The two-wheeler rider escaped unhurt as the bullet zipped past without hitting him. The incident took place near MS Ramaiah Medical College on Wednesday night.

The police identified the biker as Anil, an ambulance driver. It is said that there was an altercation between the car driver and Anil as the latter did not give way for the car. When the fight escalated, the car driver pulled out a gun and shot at the biker. As he was driving away from the spot the driver missed the target and sped away. The incident occurred near the back gate of MS Ramaiah Medical College around 9.25 pm.

The Yeshwanthpur police registered a case under the Arms Act and are searching for the accused. They are collecting CCTV footage to trace the vehicle and identify its driver.

Two buildings crack & collapse within 48 hours

The first structure was listed as vulnerable, while the second one was left unattended

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

PORTIONS of two buildings in the city in two different locations collapsed due to poor construction and age-related conditions, on Monday night and Tuesday morning.

On Monday night, the ground floor and the foundation of the four-storey building cracked and partially collapsed in ward number 102 NGO colony at Mahalakshmi Layout under Kamalanagar Assembly constituency. Of the eight families, six of them were immediately shifted to a safer location. Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP), had listed the building as vulnerable which required demolition.

On receiving the news that the building had developed cracks and collapsed, locals alerted BBMP and police rushed to the spot to take control of the situation. Minister Gopalaiah also reached the spot and ensured that there were no untoward incidents and the area had been cleared.

Speaking to media on Tuesday, he said, "There were eight houses, after notice was served to clear the property due to its poor condition, two vacated, while others stayed back because they were waiting for the property owner to repay their money. People living in the neighbourhood were also vacated, to ensure that there are no untoward incidents when the building was demolished."

The tenants claimed that the owner had to pay them the lease and advance amount of Rs 1-1.5 lakh.

The building was 15 years old and BBMP had listed the building as vulnerable because of its construction on sloppy, undulated land and for not maintaining any buffer gap around the building. Also, the site was too small for four floors to be constructed.

BBMP officials said they were searching for the owner, who is identified as Rajeshwari and the contractor, to take action. In another incident on Wednesday morning, a portion of a 100-year old house, including a part of the Mangalore-tiled-roof, collapsed. The incident happened in Ward No 119, second cross, PVN lane, Nagarthpet, behind Dharmarayaswamy temple.

The BBMP officials said, "Due to a family dispute, no one was staying in the house. It was left unattended since the last six years. The house was demolished on Wednesday afternoon and the owner is being searched for."

BBMP Chief Commissioner Gurav Gupta said, "Stability test and survey of dilapidated buildings are still going on. A report has come, but it is being finalised, after which, notices will be issued. Based on the condition of the building, it will be decided whether to repair or demolish it."

BDA Board gives approval for ₹4,500 cr for Karanth Layout

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) finally held its long-pending Board meeting on Wednesday, following a Supreme Court order a fortnight ago.

A top official told TNIE, "The major decision we took today was to give in-principle approval for Rs 4,500 crore to develop Dr Shivaram Karanth Layout. It will be spent over three to four years to create infrastructure for the layout. It will have to be approved by the Chief Minister."

Another decision taken was to relocate sites that were to come up on 40 acres in Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Layout in Kanahalli area, to another location. "This area lies below the Kanahalli tank and seepage of water is bound to happen, which would weaken buildings that will be built in future. Hence, we decided to create a huge park, and space will be identified to shift the sites," another official said.

It was also decided that due to the present staff shortage in the organisation, work could be outsourced.

A total of 80 issues were scheduled to be discussed at the meeting, but it was decided to discuss only a few key issues. A Board meeting to be held months ago was called off by BDA Chairman and Yelahanka MLA S R Vishwanath at the last minute.

The meeting was attended by Additional Chief Secretary Rakesh Singh, BBMP Chief Commissioner Gaurav Gupta and BDA Commissioner Rajesh Gowda, among others.

METRO RULES

Commuter stopped for carrying Red Bull cans

S LALITHA@ Bengaluru

A commuter who frequently transported a carton containing Red Bull energy drink cans on Metro trains, to be sold at his brother's shop, was abruptly denied permission to take it along at Chickpet station on Wednesday evening. A security staffer assumed it was alcohol and refused to allow him to take it inside the station.

Prasanna Kumar, a public sector employee, had brought a carton with 24 Red Bull cans to board the Metro from Chickpet Metro station to Kempegowda Interchange station, then change over to KSR station and board a train to Malur in Kolar district at 6.10 pm. The fracas between a cop from the Karnataka State Industrial Security Police Force (KSISF) and Kumar took place at 5.45 pm after he passed his luggage through the scanner.

Kumar told TNIE, "If I had been permitted on the Metro train, I would have boarded the 6.10 train to Malur but I couldn't. I am heading to KR Market to take a bus to KR Puram railway station and take a train from there. I am really upset." He explained that he had never been forbidden to carry the item earlier.

The security staffer assumed that the cans were filled with alcohol

"I have carried similar cartons twice or thrice a month after Metro resumed operations (June 21, 2021) post Covid-19. This is only an energy drink and I repeatedly explained it to the police. He said he knew all about it and it contained at least 25 per cent alcohol. The police was also very disrespectful towards me."

Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited Managing Director Anjum Parvez, said that alcohol figures in the list of prohibited items on Metro trains. "In this specific case, there must have been some confusion about the contents on the part of the security staffer which made him respond like this," he said.

TBM Vindhya breaks through after 855m of tunnelling

Bengaluru: After drilling for 855 metres below the ground, Tunnel Boring Machine 'Vindhya' on Wednesday achieved breakthrough at the upcoming Shivajinagar Metro Station. It began its journey on October 3, 2020, from Cantonment Metro station. A senior official told TNIE, "The final breakthrough was reached at 10.30am." Like every TBM, it had its share of tunnelling problems before completing its task, he added. The process of dismantling 'Vindhya' will follow, the official added. In all, nine TBMs have been deployed to create an underground corridor for the Nagawara-Kalena Agrahara line. TBM 'Urja' was the first to complete its task on September 22 this year. According to an official release, the TBM will be lifted to ground level at Shivajinagar Metro Station.

8 spots on Church St become wheelchair friendly

ENS@Bengaluru

EIGHT spots on Church Street have been made disabled friendly, thus bringing smiles on the faces of physically challenged individuals.

An initiative by Prateek Khandelwal, a wheelchair-bound person, noticed that Church Street wasn't friendly to disabled people and even spotted a few of them struggling to move around. This led him to set up ramps at some places and making them accessible to disabled persons.

Khandelwal's startup, RampMyCity, founded in 2018, provides infrastructure like bars or ramps to help disabled people move around the city without any hassle. Based on his startup, he thought of setting up ramps at Church Street, where there is frequent movement of people. The spots that were made accessible by adding the ramps are, Brigade Gardens, Amoeba Bowling, Ebony, Bheemas, Social, MSR West Park building giving access to HDFC Bank and Gangarams Book Store, Pizza Bakery, and 1 Sobha Mall.

Khandelwal said, "Just like every individual, hundreds of wheel chair users can now make use of the ramp and visit these spots. After getting permission from building owners and associations, we set up the ramp." He explained that to fix the ramps, no alteration is required. "All it needs is to be placed at the spot. Many people feel that it is problematic to set up such disabled friendly ramps as they need to make civic alterations, so they do not add such ramps. But the ramps we provide, are easily flexible and there is no requirement of demolishing or rebuilding anything."

In 2014, Khandelwal met with an accident which later made him wheelchair-bound. He then realised that not many places were accessible to him. Determined to bring in the change, he established RampMyCity project.

PETER VIDAL

14th October : The current planetary picture is pretty powerful. But, which way will events go? Will they be welcome or not? That's what we find difficult to say. My opinion is that we all have the ability to make moral choices and the more of us who behave with courtesy, honesty and care for others, the better the whole world will be.

ARIES
(Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
This could be a physically and emotionally exhausting week unless you take care to relax and rest whenever necessary. The last thing you want to do at this stage in your affairs is risk a burn-out. Professionally speaking, you're on to a winner, but only if you follow a hunch.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 - May 21)
Partners are going to be amazed by your flair and nerve. Don't forget, though, that other people deserve some of the credit for your current success, and it would be unwise to appear ungrateful or arrogant. There is still time to indulge a favourite fancy, by the way.

GEMINI
(May 22 - June 21)
Although you have good reason to feel encouraged by current shifts in a partner's status, always remember that it's when you're feeling optimistic that you should guard against complacency. A change of mood is coming in a few days, and I think you're about to become a great deal more businesslike.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 23)
Professional partnerships and close personal relationships are important to you, but the prospects for an amicable agreement with at least one individual are becoming ever more distant as the situation grows increasingly complex. All you can do is be as honest as you can and go straight to the heart of the matter.

LEO
(July 24 - Aug. 23)
The situation at home is becoming more intense. You are beginning to doubt whether what you have built for yourself is sufficient to provide you with the kind of stability and security you so richly deserve. Your work turns out best if you take an idealistic turn.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
It's imperative that you consult partners over your plans, holding whatever discussions are necessary. As a result, there are matters of a financial nature which may have to be set aside. There is still much to be said for giving a particular partnership a break.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
You may well be reaching a turning-point, at least as far as your business affairs are concerned. It's important that you don't impose your value judgments on people and situations that don't concern you. Younger relations need support and sympathy, so make all the time they need.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You have no choice but to enjoy today's confrontational atmosphere. I say that partly because, if you allow yourself to be sucked into some of the bad feeling that is around, your morale will suffer. Once you have dealt with a financial flap you'll be ready to face family matters.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
It's time to stand up for your reputation and defend your achievements to whoever is prepared to listen. As much as anyone else, you deserve recognition for all those long hours of hard work, without which other people would not be where they are today.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Never forget the importance of attending to your spiritual needs, a facet of life which is so often ignored amid the pressures of daily struggle. In a strange way you will be more successful financially if you pay attention to life's larger picture.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Today's challenging planetary aspects can only sweep away all the uncertainty of recent months and hopefully point you in the right direction. Don't hold on to the past: you don't need it any more. You're keeping your secrets, but then that is part of being so imaginative.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
The fiery planet Mars is aligned with the part of your horoscope ruling material aspirations, a fair indication that your income is about to increase. The catch is, so will your expenses. It's very much a question of easy come, easy go, so there's no point in hanging on to the past.

High cost, 3 doses make ZyCoV-D the last choice

Hospitals say stocks of Covishield, Covaxin have piled up, cite lack of needle-free vaccine applicators

RANJANI MADHAVAN @ Bengaluru

PRIVATE hospitals are not keen on purchasing ZyCoV-D, Zydus Cadila's Covid-19 vaccine, for multiple reasons. This DNA vaccine received emergency use authorisation from the Drugs Controller General of India (DCGI) on August 20, but has not taken off, primarily due to two factors — price negotiations between the government and manufacturers, and lack of vaccine applicators.

Smaller private hospitals say they are flush with stocks of Covaxin and Covishield. "We are hesitant as we already have extra stock of Covaxin which will expire soon, and also have 1,000 doses of Covishield. Many hospitals may not get involved as ZyCoV-D is rumoured to be expensive, with three doses said to cost Rs 1,900. This may result in losses for us as the government is encouraging us to buy on one hand, and offering vaccines for free on the other. As the government is purchasing from vaccine manufacturers at a low rate, they are compensating by charging private hospitals a higher tariff," said Dr R Ravindra, Medical Director of Suguna Hospital, and past president of Private Hospitals and Nursing Homes Association.

We need clarity on the 75:25 vaccine distribution policy of the Centre, and also the ID proof required of children who want to take ZyCoV-D

Karthik Shekhar, coordinator of RMV Hospital

The pricing will be challenged if rates are expensive, said Karthik Shekhar, coordinator of RMV Hospital. If hospitals collect stocks and no one comes forward to take it, owing to the cost factor or the fact that it involves three doses, it will be a problem for the hospital, he said. He concurred that hospitals already have huge stocks of vaccines piled up.

"We need clarity on the 75:25 vaccine distribution policy of the Centre, and also the ID proof required of children who want to take ZyCoV-D," Shekhar added.

Some believe it is only a matter of time before acceptance and demand around this new vaccine builds. The fact that it is a needle-free applicator could be attractive to beneficiaries, said Dr Naveen Thomas, Director (CEO), Bangalore Baptist Hospital.

"Community awareness will be a challenge but acceptance can be built. If demand is high, we have no problem partnering with the government. It is also the first-of-its-kind DNA vaccine, which is path-breaking. We will be happy to partner to improve vaccine coverage against Covid-19," Dr Thomas said. This vaccine has also been approved for children aged between 12 and 17.

Decision on Covid curbs on borders after Dasara

ENS @ Mangaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Wednesday said the government will take a call on relaxing Covid restrictions on inter-state movement of people between Karnataka and neighbouring Kerala and Maharashtra, soon after Dasara.

Speaking to reporters at Mangaluru International Airport, he said experts are assessing the Covid situation in Kerala, Maharashtra and border districts of the state. Soon after Dasara, a meeting of Covid experts will be convened, and a call will be taken on relaxing restrictions on the border. The meeting will also take a decision on starting offline classes for primary schools.

On coal shortage, the CM said he had met Union Coal Minister Pralhad Joshi during his recent visit to Delhi, and apprised him of the situation. The state will be in a comfortable position if it gets two more rakes of coal, in addition to the eight it is getting at present.

CHILDREN will be vaccinated in a phased manner, just as adults were, BBMP Chief Commissioner Gaurav Gupta said. Speaking to the media on Wednesday, he said in the first phase, children in the 10-18 age group will be vaccinated, besides those who are vulnerable. But this is only the discussion stage and nothing is finalised. Final approval will come from the government, and vaccination will be undertaken based on availability, he added.

When vaccines were introduced, they were administered in a phased manner to ensure there was no crowding, and also based on the supply, he said. Awareness among people will be intensified so that everyone takes the vaccine. Many are yet to take the first dose, he pointed out.

FEAR OF SIDE-EFFECTS DETERS PEOPLE FROM TAKING SECOND JAB

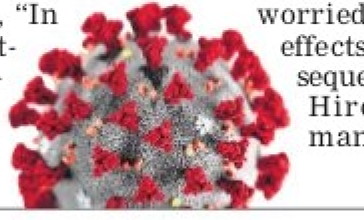
WHILE the state is prepping to increase vaccination coverage, many hospitals point out that a number of people who have taken their first dose, haven't returned for their second dose of vaccination.

They say that hesitancy and fear of side-effects is affecting the vaccination drive. Though hospitals have vaccine stock, many have not even turned up for their first dose yet.

Dr Neha Mishra, Consultant-Infectious Diseases, Manipal Hospitals, Old Airport Road, said, "In our outpatient setting, we still have patients who cannot decide on taking the first dose. It might be difficult to put a number, but we come across at least one or two patients per week. Taking the vaccine should be compulsory."



The patients are usually worried about adverse effects and long-term sequelae. Dr Jagadish Hiremath, Chairman at Acr Suhas Hospital said, "Fear of side-effects seems to be hampering the success of the vaccination drive. While healthcare experts are advising people to take a booster dose six months after the second dose, many are skipping their second dose."

Some private hospitals say that vaccination is hampered badly. "We would inoculate over 80 individuals on weekdays and over 200 people on weekends. Now it is 30 people throughout the week. Even if we call them for vaccination, there is no response. One reason could be the high number of government vaccination sites where it is free. Due to this, our Covaxin stock expires in November, but no one is coming forward. We had written to the Serum Institute to send our spare stock. We have sufficient Covishield stock, and are hoping people come for the second dose," said Dr R Ravindra, Past President, Private Hospital And Nursing Association.

A senior doctor from the government-run KC General Hospital said that from 800-1000 vaccinations per day, the numbers are down to 200.

JDS supremo H D Deve Gowda on Wednesday blamed the Congress and BJP for conspiring to finish off the regional party. To a question whether the JDS is helping the BJP win the forthcoming bypolls by fielding minority candidates in both Hanagal and Sindagi constituencies, Gowda said, "There is no question of us helping the BJP in the bypolls."

Cong sacks Saleem after gossip on DKS goes viral

Alleges KPCC chief is corrupt; media mikes pick up whispers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Congress on Wednesday suspended M A Saleem, media coordinator in Karnataka, and issued showcause notice to former Ballari MP V S Ugrappa, for making uncharitable remarks about KPCC President DK Shivakumar.

The party reacted nervously to a whispered conversation between the two leaders, at a press conference to defend Opposition leader Siddaramaiah on Tuesday. Saleem was heard saying that Shivakumar was a "collection giraaki" (loosely translated as 'corrupt man'), unmindful of the super-sensitive boom microphones of television channels, which can pick up even hushed whispers.

The conversation was about corruption when Shivakumar was water resources minister in the 14-month coalition government. Minutes before the press meet, Saleem says in a hushed voice, "Earlier, corruption was 8 per cent. He increased it to 12 per cent. These are all adjustments by DKS... Uppar and G Shankar, the one from Hosapete in Ballari, whom you know. Uppar is from Bengaluru..." Ugrappa interjects to say that Uppar is from Vijayapura, and Saleem says Uppar's house is opposite former Chief Minister S M Krishna's residence in upmarket Palace Orchards in Bengaluru.

> You have shown that they have spoken ill against me. I will not deny it. I am not connected to what they have spoken
> DK Shivakumar, KPCC president

Saleem continues, "Water resources is a massively corrupt department and if investigated properly, Shivakumar's corruption will be revealed. Contractors made about Rs 50-100 crore, and if they made so much, imagine how much Shivakumar would have made. He is a collection giraaki."

Ugrappa responds, "I don't know this. We all lobbied to make him State president. That's why I am not saying anything. These are the reasons..." Saleem continues, ''DKS stutters when speaking, maybe because of low BP or some other reason, he drinks as he gets emotional these days.'' He is then heard appreciating CLP leader Siddaramaiah for his "kadak" (strong) body language.

Responding to the media expose, Shivakumar said, "You have shown that they have spoken ill against me. I will not deny it. I am not connected to what they have spoken. I was never part of any 'percentage' (share in contracts) and I don't need it."

This is the second time the Congress has found itself at the wrong end of the microphone. A few months ago, AICC General Secretary and Karnataka in-charge Randeep Surjewala had whispered to D K Shivakumar that former law minister T B Jayachandra should not be given the Sira ticket, which was picked up by media mikes, kicking up a huge controversy. These developments come about two weeks before the Sindagi and Hanagal bypolls.

Saffron party hits out at GOP over videoclip, says groupism exposed

ENS @ Bengaluru

BJP leaders on Wednesday took potshots at the opposition Congress that found itself in an embarrassing position after its leaders were caught on camera criticising state Congress president DK Shivakumar. "In a huge embarrassment to Karnataka Congress, its leaders disclose that aides of KPCC president Shivakumar have collected crores of rupees. They also wonder how much their boss would have collected," commented BJP spokesperson Chalavadi Narayanaswamy.

He said the development exposed corrupt practices and groupism within Congress. "Leaders of the opposition party have unmasked their president and made him a villain. That clearly exposes groupism within the party," he added. After the video of Congress leaders MA Saleem and VS Ugrappa went viral, Congress expelled Saleem from the party for six years and issued a show-cause notice to Ugrappa, a former MP. Narayanaswamy, however, wondered whether Shivakumar has the power to take action against Ugrappa.

BJP general secretary and MLC N Ravi Kumar asked what action will be taken against the PCC president after their own party leaders spoke against him at the party office. "What moral right do they have to campaign in Hanagal and Sindagi Assembly segments," he asked.

TOUGH ANTI-CONVERSION LAW IN THE WORKS, PROMISES BOMMAI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Udupi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai said that anti-religious conversion laws prevailing in other states will be studied to formulate a strong legislation in Karnataka, in the coming days.

Speaking in Udupi after laying the foundation stone for the new degree college building of Poornaprajna Institution at Admar, on Wednesday, the Chief Minister said a strong law will be brought into effect soon.

He was responding to queries from reporters on whether the government has planned anything to curb mushrooming cases of alleged religious conversion, that is leading to unrest in society. On ensuring protection for cows, he said there is already a law in place for cattle.

He said vaccination for children in the 2-18 age group will be rolled out in the state once the competent authority from the central ministry gives the final certification. He also said that vaccination has been going on at full pace, with 82 per cent of the first dose and 37 per cent of the second dose administered so far. While 90 per cent coverage of first dose will be achieved by December-end, second dose coverage will reach 70 per cent, he said.

Any plans to dissolve police dept, asks Siddu

Former CM Siddaramaiah strongly criticised Bommai for his remarks on moral policing saying that the latter has accepted his incapability to maintain law and order by justifying moral policing. In a series of tweets, Siddaramaiah alleged that the government is trying to protect anti-social elements instead of putting them behind bars. "Appeasing RSS may be necessary to save your position, but you should not stoop this low ... Do you have any plans to dissolve police department, and handover the law and order to RSS? Or are you planning to establish a Jungle Raj?"

BJP cadres share CM's clip on social media

"THERE should be morality. We cannot live without morality. When there is no morality, action and reaction will happen," Bommai added.

While his statement gave grist to the opposition to attack the government amid a spike in 'moral policing' incidents especially in the coast, it came as a boost to BJP cadres, many of whom shared the clip of Bommai's statement on social media sites.

Democratic Youth Federation of India (DYFI) state president Muneer Katipalla said, "The chief minister, who had given a lecture on law when two Muslim youngsters attacked a couple belonging to different faiths in Bengaluru, has made a complete U-turn about Sangh Parivar's immoral acts in Mangaluru. His statement that when sentiments are hurt, action and reaction are bound to happen is a 'readymade' dialogue. If a chief minister who has taken a pledge on the Constitution uses such words to justify immoral policing, then what will be the fate of the state? His statement will further provoke communal forces. What will happen if communities start competing with each other under the guise of action and reaction? He should apologise to people."

BJP MLA AA Patil campaigns for party candidate Ramesh Bhusanur in Sindagi

AN internal survey conducted by BJP ahead of the bypolls to Hanagal and Sindagi has given the party an edge over opposition parties. However, two factors -- JDS candidates (both from the minority community) managing to get a considerable share of votes and former CM BS Yediyurappa campaigning in both segments -- will sway the results in party's favour, party insiders said.

On Tuesday, CM Basavaraj Bommai and party state president Nalin Kumar Kateel held a meeting to chalk out a plan for the bypolls. They decided that apart from Bommai and Yediyurappa, senior leaders and cabinet ministers too would campaign in both constituencies. Giving a boost to the party's prospects, Bommai managed to convince party "rebel" Channappa R Ballari, who withdrew his nomination papers from Hanagal on Wednesday. Winning Hanagal is a matter of prestige for Bommai as it falls under his home district Haveri.

KARNATAKA ASSEMBLY BYPOLLS DECIDE

JDS supremo HD Deve Gowda on Tuesday launched the party campaign in Sindagi for Naziya Shakeel Ahmed Angadi. Sindagi was represented by JDS MLA MC Managuli, whose demise earlier this year necessitated the bypoll. JDS sources said that Gowda is determined to teach Congress a lesson as it "poached" Ashok Managuli, son of the late MC Managuli, and fielded him as its candidate. In Hanagal, JDS senior leader HD Kumaraswamy will campaign for Niyaz Sheikh.

Leaders in the Yediyurappa camp said that he will campaign in both seats and especially in Hanagal, where Congress is expected to give a tough fight to BJP. Party candidate Shivaraj Sajjannar was a staunch supporter of the late MLA Udasi and that is the factor that will be used to douse any rebellion after Revathi, the daughter-in-law of Udasi, was denied the ticket.

13 candidates remain in fray in Hanagal

ARUNKUMAR HURALIMATH
@Haveri

MAJOR political parties contesting the Hanagal by-election are a bit relieved, as their rebel candidates withdrew nominations on Wednesday. In all, 29 candidates had filed papers, while the documents of 12 were rejected. On Wednesday, the last day of withdrawal of nominations, four pulled out. With this, 13 candidates, including four independents, have remained in the fray.

While the saffron party managed to convince Channappa R Ballari, who is the brother of Byadgi BJP MLA Virupakshappa R Ballari, to pull out, Congress leaders could do so only with two of its candidates. Two others, Nazir Ahmed Savanur and Honnappa Akkivalli, have refused. A Congress leader said the two could affect the prospects of party candidate, Srinivas V Mane. "As the party did not give the ticket to former MLA Manohar Tahasildar and opted for the candidate from a neighbouring district, party workers were upset. But now they are convinced and have agreed to work for Mane," he said. BJP has fielded Shivaraj Sajjanar and Niyaz Sheikh from JDS. In Sindagi, six candidates are left in the fray. Two candidates---Vikram Pandit (Socialist Party) and D Abdulrehaman Haneef (Independent) withdrew their papers.

WAR OF WORDS

BSY, Siddu rubbish HDK's claim of secret meet

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FORMER Chief Ministers BS Yediyurappa and Siddaramaiah have rubbished Janata Dal Secular leader HD Kumaraswamy's claims about a secret meeting between the two days before the Income Tax department raids on contractors working on irrigation projects.

"Except meeting him during my birthday celebrations on February 27, 2020, I have not met Siddaramaiah. There is no need for me to meet him. We (BJP leaders) are working on strengthening BJP and bringing it back to power in state again," Yediyurappa said responding to Kumaraswamy's statement. The BJP leader said he will not rest till he reaches the goal of bringing the party back to power and he will never compromise on his principle.

Siddaramaiah too refuted Kumaraswamy's claims. "The last time I had met Yediyurappa was on his birthday. I have not met him even once after that. If Kumaraswamy proves that I met Yediyurappa, I will retire from politics. It is Kumaraswamy who meets Yediyurappa regularly," Siddaramaiah said. The JDS leader, who is engaged in a war of words with Siddaramaiah, had alleged that the IT raids were conducted on contractors after the two former CMs met. Three big contractors were raided last week and the IT department had detected undisclosed income of about Rs 750 crore. Dismissing the allegation, Siddaramaiah said he is the Leader of Opposition and will the BJP that is in power in the Centre listen to him to conduct the IT raids.

MLC polls: Cong, BJP may field one candidate each from Belagavi

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

DESPITE hectic lobbying for tickets for the upcoming elections to two Legislative Council seats from Belagavi, the Congress has decided to field only one candidate.

A top source from the BJP said they too will field a single candidate. During the last poll, too, Congress and BJP had fielded one candidate each and both parties had extended support to independents for the other seat. Eventually, independent candidate Vivekrao Patil emerged victorious, while the BJP's Mahantesh Kavatgimath won the other seat. "In most of the elections held to the five dual-member local bodies constituencies in the state so far, rarely has BJP or Congress won both seats whenever they fielded two candidates. That is why both of them may be keen on fielding one candidate each," said Mahantesh M Kavatagimath.

Given his track record in the MLC polls, the BJP is certain to field Kavatgimath as its only candidate from Belagavi, sources said. Election to the dual-member Belagavi local bodies constituency is scheduled to be held after two months and several popular candidates from Congress are exerting pressure on the party leadership for the ticket.

"The competition will be between leaders from our own party (Congress) if two candidates are fielded. That is why we will field only one candidate. Already, five aspirants have applied," said KPCC working president Satish Jarkiholi said.

Congress had failed to win a single MLC seat in Belagavi last time due to anti-party activities by some of its leaders. Satish said, "The team which worked against us in the last election has moved out of Congress."

'Will continue to contest LS polls'

Satish said he will continue to be the party candidate for the Lok Sabha election from Belagavi until his party wins the seat. BJP has won all the last four Lok Sabha elections from Belagavi with the late Suresh Angadi winning thrice and his wife Mangala Angadi emerging victorious in the last election. "It is up to the people of Yamakanamaradi (which Jarkiholi represents in the Assembly) to decide whether they want my children, Rahul or Priyanka, to contest the next Assembly election from Yamakanamardi," he added.

BJP MLA seeks better board, corporation, threatens to quit

TUMAKURU : Ahead of the October 30 bypolls to Hanagal and Sindagi Assembly constituencies, some loyalists of former chief minister BS Yediyurappa in Bharatiya Janata Party have spoken out against the Basavaraj Bommai-led state government and also the party. As the list of new presidents for boards and corporations has been prepared, Turuvekere MLA Masale Jayaram, who is the chairman of Spices Development Corporation, on Wednesday said that he should be given a better board or corporation as at the present post, he does not have enough funds or even an attendant. "I wish to get a board or corporation that has the scope to serve the people," he said. He further threatened to quit as MLA if his demand is not met, and set November 1 as the deadline.

Ready to become Bengaluru in-charge minister: Ashwath

BELAGAVI: While admitting that he is prepared to hold the Bengaluru in-charge minister portfolio, Higher Education Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan has said that he will take up the responsibility if it is given to him by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. "It is the prerogative of the CM. He has made his stand clear that he will appoint a minister after holding consultations with everyone concerned," the minister said. Commenting on whether the party would give more responsibilities to former minister Ramesh Jarkiholi after the CD-gate row, Narayan said, "Jarkiholi may have gone through a lot of pain... but the party will do its best to take him into confidence." Calling Ramesh Jarkiholi as "our leader", he said that the party will always support him.

BSY's former adviser to head delimitation panel

BENGALURU : M Lakshminarayana, the retired IAS officer who served as advisor to former Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa, was appointed as the Chairman of the Karnataka Panchayat Raj Delimitation Commission on Wednesday. Amidst opposition from the Congress recently, the ruling BJP passed the Karnataka Gram Swaraj and Panchayat Raj (Amendment) Bill. The amendment allows for the creation of a new delimitation commission, which according to Congress members, would snatch power from the State Election Commission (SEC), which normally carries out the delimitation of panchayat boundaries and fixes reservation for seats. On Wednesday, Lakshminarayana was appointed to head the commission. A notification has also been issued in this regard.

Lockdown blues made kids run away

Left home feeling 'suffocated', looking for jobs and for exposure

ASHWINI M SRIPAD
@Bengaluru

THE Covid-induced lockdown and online classes have had a startling impact on children, as several cases of young ones running away from home have been reported.

Since January this year, 1,654 children have been found at different bus and railway stations in Bengaluru. Some of them left home, apparently feeling suffocated, while others sought exposure. Besides, many children, driven by poverty, came to the state capital in search of jobs.

Over the last week, in two separate incidents in Bengaluru, six children went missing from their residences and were subsequently traced by the police.

According to the data provided by Bangalore Oniyavara Seva Coota (BOSCO), an NGO working with street children, of the 1,654 runaways traced in the city, 1,366 were boys and the rest girls.

Also, 415 of these children were from Bengaluru Urban. The average number of children found between January and April was 170 to 190 per month, while in May and June, when the lockdown was at its peak, it dipped to 14 and 76, respectively.

As the curbs were relaxed, the cases shot up again -- July (277), August (263) and September (326). Till October 10, there were 43 runaway children.

Bosco Yuvodaya Director Father Johnson said that one of the major reasons for these children to find their way to Bengaluru is jobs and many of them came from Odisha, Bihar and other North Indian states.

He said that sitting at home for a long time during the lockdown also affected children, who wanted exposure of a big city. "We found many children arriving in Bengaluru and some leaving from here to other cities," he said, adding that they often travelled in small groups.

Meanwhile, Education Minister BC Nagesh said, "We will convene a meeting on Monday and speak to Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and other officials. We will try to find a solution."

Abandoned bags cause panic on BVK Iyengar Road

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AN unattended suitcase and a trolley bag created panic on the busy BVK Iyengar Road, on Wednesday afternoon. The bomb squad, which arrived on he scene, took the suspicious objects to Freedom Park and opened it, only to find clothes.

At around 1 pm, the shopkeepers found a suspicious black suitcase placed on a scooter belonging to a shop owner. As no one came forward to pick it up for a while, they grew suspicious and alerted the police. A team rushed to the spot. While inspecting the scene, they discovered another unattended black trolley bag placed next to a van on the other side of the road.

Soon, they cordoned off the area and asked the shop keepers to down shutters, and moved them out of the cordoned-off zone. The Bomb Detection and Disposal Squad was pressed into service. After a thorough check, the police decided not to open the bags there as the area was crowded.

In zero traffic, they took the suspicious objects to Freedom Park, where both the suitcase and the trolley bag were opened, which revealed some clothes.

"We are trying to find out who kept the bags there and why. Both the places where the suspicious bags were kept are not covered by CCTVs. It looks like a deliberate act," a senior police officer said.

BENGALURU: A relative of the Congress MLA from Shantinagar N A Harris was held at the Kempegowda International Airport on Tuesday morning for carrying two live bullets in his baggage. Umar Farooq Haris Nalapad was not allowed to board his flight to Dubai. "The individual had a valid gun licence, but did not carry it with him. He had left the bullets behind in the bag by mistake and the CISF personnel discovered it when checking his baggage, around 9.30 pm," a source he said, adding, "Umar had to arrange for the valid documents to be brought to the airport." He later took another flight to Dubai.

Court can order inquiry, release property, in impersonation case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Wednesday ruled that the person who stands surety and whose land has been attached for forfeiture of bond, while granting bail to an accused, has the right to apply before a sessions court for release of the property, in case of impersonation of surety.

"In a situation like this, it cannot be said that the court which ordered for forfeiting the bond and initiation of action for recovering the bond amount, is powerless to conduct an inquiry and drop the proceedings if somebody has impersonated the petitioner's father," Justice Sreenivas Harish Kumar said, allowing a petition by G Prashanth from Gottigere.

The petitioner moved the high court as the sessions court did not entertain his father's application to conduct an inquiry and release the property. His father, GS Gundanna, did not stand surety for the release of accused Jaabir Ahmad in a crime. The affidavit filed by another person, as surety, stating he is the son of Sampangirama Shastry and owner of 1 acre 8 guntas of land in Chikkammanahalli, Begur hobli, were false.

After he learnt of the mischief, Gundanna applied to the Registrar, City Civil Court, but no action was taken and the property was attached. Meanwhile, he passed away in 2020. The petitioner, Prashanth, moved HC which ruled that he has the right to apply for release of the property.

Adani takes over T'puram airport, LDF govt mum

Kerala government had been claiming so far that it won't allow the deal to happen

DHINESH KALLUNGAL
@ T'Puram

AMID the disquieting silence of the state government, the Adani Group will formally take over the Thiruvananthapuram airport in the wee hours of Thursday. Thus far, the state government has been claiming -- both inside and outside the assembly -- that it will not allow the Adani Enterprises to take over the airport.

Under the circumstances, the employees attached to the Airport Authority Employees Union (AAEU) -- the Left-affiliated union that had been holding protests against the privatisation of the Thiruvananthapuram airport for around three years -- share a sense of disappointment as they had pinned hopes on the tall promises of the state government. At the same time, various trade bodies remain upbeat over the takeover of airport. According to them, privatisation would bring more amenities to the airport.

The airport has around 600 Airports Authority of India (AAI) employees -- including executive and non-executive staff -- who will have to work with the Adani Thiruvananthapuram International Airport, the wholly owned subsidiary of the Adani Enterprises, for the next three years. After three years of joint operation, they can either join hands with the private entity or can opt for other airports under the AAI in other parts of the country.

Speaking to TNIE, AAEU state president K P Suresh said "the AAI has plans to privatise around 25 airports in the south Indian states including Calicut airport in the coming years and they have been moving ahead with such a plan. So there is no point in moving out to other airports as all these airports would be privatised in a phased manner in the coming years. So our main demand to the management is to allow us to continue to work here till our retirement," he said.

Another senior leader said though the case filed by the union and state government challenging the privatisation of the airport is pending before the Supreme Court, the chances for revoking the central decision of privatizing the airports is very remote. Especially when the state government has already weakened its position by taking part in the bidding for the airport along with Adani, even court had criticized the state government saying it has no locus standi and its claims are equal to proverbial sour grapes. It was the state government which ditched the employees first, he said.

The new airport company will pay a sum of Rs 168 per domestic passenger to AAI as part of the 50 year agreement.

Civic poll results endorsement of my rule: Stalin

90-year-old Perumathal greets her supporters after winning the post of panchayat president at Sivanthipatti in Tirunelveli | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

THE ruling DMK has gobbled a lion's share of posts in the nine districts where rural local body elections were held last week. After results for almost all posts were declared on Wednesday, the Dravidian major is set to capture all the nine district panchayats and a major chunk of panchayat unions.

This is the party's third big victory under the stewardship of party president and CM MK Stalin, the first two being the 2019 Lok Sabha elections and the State Assembly elections held earlier this year.

"The results are an endorsement of the first five months in office," said Stalin, adding the DMK's popularity increased in such a short time as the government has performed well. Thanking his colleagues, party leaders, and others, Stalin also called upon the newly elected members to strive hard to sustain the confidence people have reposed in the DMK.

Meanwhile, the AIADMK described it a "backdoor victory" for the DMK, alleging violation of rules and using the State Election Commission as a puppet. Leaders O Panneerselvam and Edappadi K Palaniswami said the party would present the 'violations of rules' by the DMK and the SEC's haplessness before the Madras HC.

Apart from the Dravidian majors, many other parties that dreamt of forming a third front in TN have failed to register a decent victory. Though the PMK secured a sizable number of posts, other parties fared poorly. While DMK's victory will boost its cadres' morale ahead of the urban local body polls to be held in a few months, for the AIADMK, it seems tough times are ahead, with VK Sasikala, one-time confidante of former Chief Minister J Jayalalithaa, looks to make a political comeback.

Oct sees rise in coal supplies to AP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

THE APGENCO thermal plants, which received only 24,000 tonnes of coal a day on an average in September against the total requirement of 70,000 tonnes, have seen an improvement as 40,000 tonnes of coal started coming in following a request by the State.

"The shortage in coal production across the country for the last two years, steep rise in coal prices in international market and surge in grid demand in Andhra Pradesh have led to power crunch in the State. Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy was the first CM in the country who highlighted the coal crisis in thermal power stations, explained the high prices in power exchanges and sought the intervention of the Prime Minister. Due to this, the State has seen some improvement in coal supplies," the Energy Department said, in a statement on Wednesday.

The power utilities have fully geared up to meet the increasing demand despite an unprecedented coal crisis prevailing in the country. Sustained efforts, including convincing the Centre to direct the coal ministry to send 20 coal rakes to AP thermal power plants, allot deep-sea gas from ONGC and Reliance, and revival of non-working pit head thermal plants without PPAs, are being made to tide over the crisis.

The department claimed that the crisis was "purely temporary" and that it will overcome it soon.

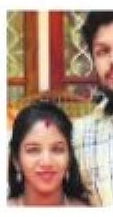
Meanwhile, the power purchase rates had shot up to ₹20 per unit against the average cost of ₹4 to ₹5 earlier due to the high demand and low supply across the country because of coal shortage. At the same time, the average power demand surged to 190 Million Units (MU) in October, 2021, as against 160 MU in October, 2020.

APGENCO is operating 2,300 to 2,500 MW out of its installed capacity of 5,010 MW due to severe shortage of coal. Some units of Rayalaseema Thermal Power Plant(RTPP) remain shut. Krishnapatnam and Dr Narla Tata Rao Thermal Power Station(NTTPS) are also generating less than their capacity. Although officials have been maintaining that there was no load shedding 'officially', several reports of power cuts in rural areas and in industry sector have been emerging across the State. The State Discoms availed 50,000 MU from their long-term resources out of total consumption of 63,070 MU, that includes thermal, hydel, wind, solar, etc.

Uthra murder: Sooraj gets life sentence

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Kollam

SOORAJ S Kumar, convicted of murdering his sleeping wife by making a cobra bite her, was handed 17 years' imprisonment and a double life sentence in addition on Wednesday. The Kollam Additional Sessions Court, which refused to describe it as a rarest of rare case, stopped short of handing him capital punishment "considering his young age" and "the absence of criminal background". The court also imposed a fine of ₹5.85 lakh on Sooraj, 32. Uthra's family said they would appeal against the verdict, and wanted him to be awarded the death penalty.



Uthra, 25, died of snakebite at her house in Anchal near here on May 7, 2020. It was alleged that Sooraj had bought two snakes -- first a viper and then a cobra -- to kill her.

Pronouncing the quantum of sentence, judge M Manoj sentenced the accused to life imprisonment under IPC 302 (murder). It further awarded imprisonment for life under IPC 307 (attempt to murder). For the other two charges --- section 328 (causing hurt by means of poison with intent to commit an offence) and section 201 (causing disappearance of evidence of the offence), he was awarded 10 years and seven years' imprisonment.

The convict was shifted to the Central prison in Thiruvananthapuram.

Bandipur Tiger census from Oct 20

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A day after the confusion hovered with Bandipur Tiger Reserve conducting the tiger census in a hush-hush manner without informing the higher ups, the forest department officials said the census is likely to be held from October 20 or 25.

"Training is being completed and the calender for each reserve is being drawn, based on the availability of camera traps and field staff. It is likely the field survey exercise of the census will start from October 20 or 25 because it has to be completed by December and sent to Wildlife Institute of India and National Tiger Conservation Authority," a senior forest department official said.

Meanwhile, staffers at MM Hills are gearing up to start the exercise of the camera trap survey from October 14. "Since we have procured the cameras from other reserves for the training, we want to do the exercise before sending them to other reserves and areas for assessment," said the official.

In case of BRT Tiger Reserve, the officials explained, "Since last year the annual internal assessment could not be done, the exercise was done in June-July. This was discussed with NTCA and they assured that there would not be a need to repeat the exercise, unless any errors are found. So while in other reserves the assessment will be done, it in unlikely to be done in BRT, but it will be done in non-tiger presence areas."

Heads of some other reserves are waiting for the Dasara festivities to end before staff returns in full strength and clearing of transact lines is done so that herbivore and carnivore assessment is done accurately.

Officials in Nagarhole, Bhadra, Kudremukh and Kali tiger reserve are checking the nuances of the app before it is put to use for the census exercise.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Karwar

IN yet another mishap, a massive fire broke out after a huge chemical tanker carrying inflammable material overturned on the Ankola- Yellapur highway in Arbail Ghat, in Uttara Kannada district.

The fire was so severe that the forest nearby was affected and the Department of Fire and Emergency Service battled hard to put off the blaze.

The accident occurred at Arthibail cross near Idagundi village in Arbail Ghat between Ankola and Yellapur around 7:30 am on Wednesday.

The driver and the cleaner managed to jump out and save their lives. There were no casualties. The burning tanker blocked the Ghats and the traffic on National Highway 63 came to a halt for a couple of hours. The police, the fire and the emergency service department and other agencies worked together to clear the traffic after several hours.

The incident occurred when the driver lost control of the vehicle. The tanker was carrying benzene from a subsidiary company of MRPL, called OAPL, to a Gujarat paint firm.

The tanker, carrying highly inflammable material inside overturned, and a fire broke out. Fire tenders rushed to the spot, and managed to douse the fire after a few hours. The Yellapur Police rushed to the spot and cordoned off the area.

The magnitude of the fire was so huge that it spread to the forest adjoining the Ghats.

According to the sources at least 2 kms of green cover was affected. The fire spread to nearby rivers.

This is the third time a tanker has overturned in the district.

WELCOME PUSH BY RIL IN GROWING GREEN ENERGY

The Mukesh Ambani-promoted Reliance Industries (RIL) made an important statement last weekend. On Sunday, it announced RIL's subsidiary, Reliance New Energy Solar, had made two clean energy acquisitions. The first was REC Solar Holdings from China National Bluestar Company at an enterprise value of $771 million. REC is a leading international solar energy company headquartered in Norway. Later, RIL said it was buying a 40% stake in Sterling & Wilson Solar Ltd, a Shapoorji Pallonji (SP) Company, for a consideration of about ₹2,845 crore. These acquisitions come close on the heels of Reliance's new ₹75,000-crore push into green energy.

With these acquisitions, Reliance is putting its money where its mouth is. Thermal power, produced by coal-fired plants, has been blacklisted by the environmental community. Internationally, such plants are on the way out. However, in India they are still the mainstay of our energy production, contributing as much as 71% of the electricity consumed. International climate agreements have pledged to stop coal-based electricity production as burning of fossil fuels releases greenhouse gases. These increase the levels of CO_2, trapping heat and contributing to global climate change. Seeing the writing on the wall, Reliance wants to cash in on the future course of the energy revolution.

It is laudable that renewable energy sources have grown quite rapidly in India. From barely 20 GW installed in 2010, renewable energy—wind, water, solar—accounts for 142 GW or 37% of the total capacity now, little over a decade later. Reliance's push into renewables comes at a time when the country is going through a power crisis forced by shortage of coal. Though the Centre has been denying it, the last weekend saw coal shortages beginning to bite, with states like UP and Rajasthan reporting several hours of outages. This should be a trigger for the conversion process to move faster. Significantly, we will probably see the Ambanis crossing swords with the Adanis, whose Adani Green Energy Ltd has also pledged to develop a portfolio of 25GW of renewable energy assets by 2025. No harm done, from the country's point of view, as the more green sources there are, the merrier.

ALL IS NOT LOST FOR THE AIADMK

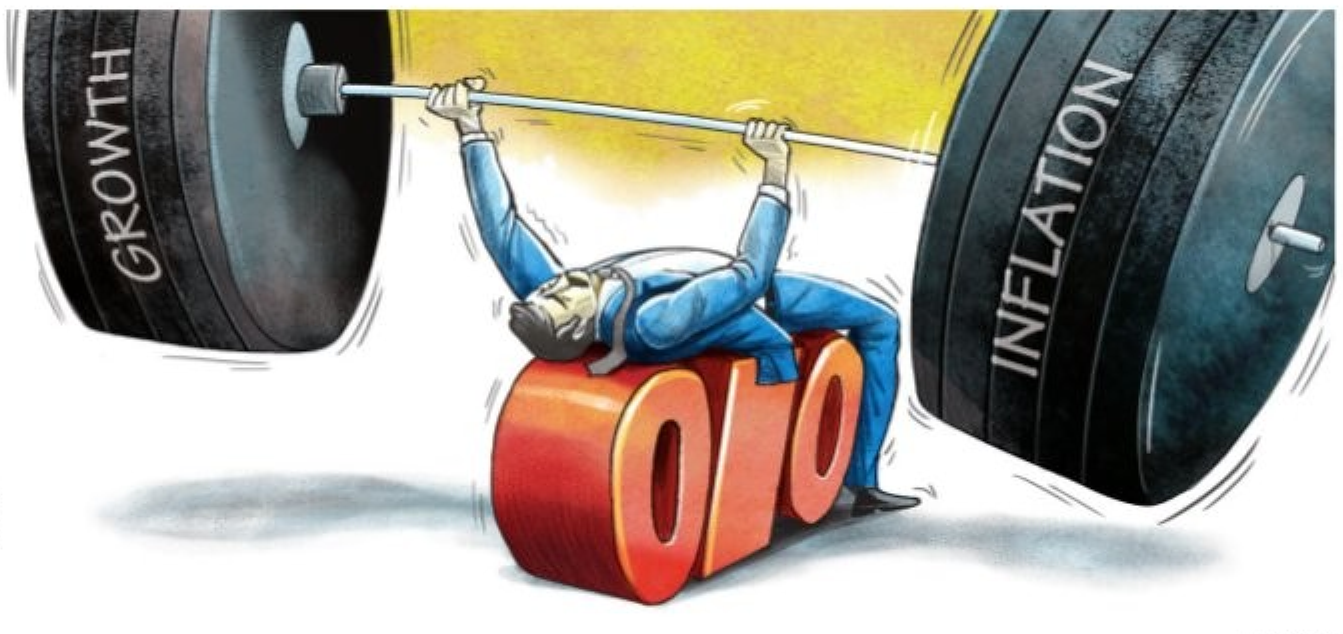
Just days before it marks the golden jubilee celebration of its founding, the AIADMK has suffered a drubbing in the recently held rural local body elections in nine districts in Tamil Nadu. The ruling DMK has swept the polls, leaving all others including the principal opposition party in the dust. The loss comes as the AIADMK faces a crisis, with power, the glue that held it together after late CM J Jayalalithaa's death in 2016, falling out of its grasp this year after a decade in office.

From 2017 to 2021, Edappadi K Palaniswami, as chief minister, steered the party through multiple crises, succeeding in preventing a major split or, more significantly, loss of the 'Two Leaves' symbol. Yet, the cracks were merely papered over. Now looms the threat of V K Sasikala, Jayalalithaa's former aide, returning to active politics and making a play for power. Meanwhile, it is more than evident that Palaniswami and O Panneerselvam, the party's coordinator, are not on the same page. The AIADMK's grassroots workers know this too, a significant number opting to join other parties after the state Assembly elections earlier this year. The party's biggest weakness, of course, remains the lack of a charismatic leader—founder M G Ramachandran and Jayalalithaa were larger-than-life personas who drew crowds but also cultivated a personality-centric party, which brought its own limitations.

Yet all is not lost. Although the party lost the Assembly polls amid significant anti-incumbency, it still retained 66 seats on its own, defending its bastion in the west. Further, the widely recognised Two Leaves remains in its hands. A strong AIADMK is in the interests of the state and is pivotal to its political future. For this reason, its leaders must look at reviving and rebuilding the party from the ground up, even perhaps using the opportunity to grow beyond its roots as a personality-centred political outfit.

The RBI and the government will need to ensure that attention to growth does not hamper the return of the inflation trajectory to manageable levels

MANAGING THE TRADE-OFF BETWEEN GROWTH & INFLATION



AMIT BANDRE

TULSI JAYAKUMAR

Professor, Economics and Chairperson, Family Managed Business at Bhavan's SPJIMR

In its monetary policy statement on 8 October 2021, the Reserve Bank of India unanimously decided to keep the policy repo rate unchanged at the historic low at which it has been held since May 2020—4%. All members of the Monetary Policy Committee (except one) also agreed to keep the monetary policy stance accommodative "as long as necessary" so as to revive and sustain growth on a durable basis and continue to mitigate the impact of Covid-19 on the economy, while ensuring that inflation remains within the target going forward. Clearly, the short-run growth-inflation trade-off is playing itself out, as one witnesses the economy trying to move along the growth path, even while the inflation trajectory refuses to inspire confidence. The RBI's policy stance is based on its reading of the inflationary situation as one that is driven by supply-side factors, with the demand remaining weak.

Two questions arise: How robust is the RBI's reading of the inflation situation in the economy? How can the government and the RBI help in minimising the growth-inflation trade-off while it gives priority to growth?

RBI and its reading of the inflation: As set out in the RBI's October Monetary Policy Report, the inflation as measured by the headline CPI-Combined was greater than that projected in April 2021 for both Q1 and Q2 of 2021-22 by 35 and 27 basis points respectively. The RBI terms such deviations as unanticipated and attributes these partly to the second wave of Covid at the beginning of 2021-22 and the resultant lockdowns across the country. There was also an unanticipated surge in global energy prices, pushing up petrol and diesel inflation, besides an extraordinary surge in international edible oil prices. Prices of manufacturing sector products too remained high on account of higher input and transport costs.

Clearly, the RBI has been caught on the wrong foot in terms of its assessment of the inflationary situation in the economy, with the reduction in CPI-C witnessed in both August and September a result of a moderation in the price momentum, but more importantly a positive base effect.

Whether the RBI's current assessment of a weak demand and uneven recovery, which needs to be bolstered through policy support, even if it means keeping inflation in the upper limit of the tolerance band, is correct or not remains a moot question. There is no guarantee of supply-side disruptions ending soon. Inflation rates, especially in the advanced economies, are on the rise, creating a spectre of volatile capital flows. Crude oil may harden even further, given recent reports of OPEC increasing its supplies only slowly, even while the festive season and the ebbing of the Covid infections lead to greater consumer confidence and spending.

Managing the growth-inflation trade-off: The RBI has been concentrating on the growth objective for some time now, even prior to the pandemic. Both the RBI and the government will need to acknowledge the trade-off between growth and inflation, and ensure that attention to growth does not hamper the return of the inflation trajectory to manageable levels. This would require identifying the villains in our inflation story and directly addressing the same. The villains, at this stage, include items such as petrol and diesel (fuel inflation), edible oils and proteins, besides health inflation.

> The Centre should recognise the crucial role that fuel inflation plays in both WPI and CPI inflation and its linkages to the rest of the economy, and take steps to reduce it, even though it might have fiscal considerations

One, the government should recognise the crucial role that fuel inflation plays in both WPI and CPI inflation and its linkages to the rest of the economy, and take steps to reduce such inflation, even though it might have fiscal considerations. Petrol and diesel inflation witnessed highs of 61.53% and 50.69% in the WPI in August 2021, which would have high pass-through effects in the rest of the economy. Even in CPI, the fuel and light component had exhibited a high 13.6% inflation in September 2021. The government should immediately cut taxes on petrol and diesel so that the effect of fuel inflation on transport and logistics costs and thereby on food and manufacturing prices could be mitigated. The government would also need to encourage non-conventional energy production to prevent the power shortage-led inflation, which looms large today.

Two, edible oil prices have demonstrated high inflation levels of 34.19% (September 2021). Much of this has been on account of high international edible oil prices and our dependence on such imports for anywhere from 60–75% of our domestic consumption based on monsoons and domestic production. The government will need to work at improving the domestic production of edible oils, which could take the form of possible subsidies on oilseeds.

Three, with improvements in the dietary habits of Indians, protein inflation—inflation in items such as eggs, meat and fish, milk and milk products, and pulses—has been contributing to India's inflation trajectory for some years now. The government needs to take steps to incentivise the production of these food items, thereby ensuring that people are not penalised for better nutrition habits.

Better anticipation and management of inflation may still give the RBI and government enough space to concentrate on growth while keeping price rise in check.

MYSURU DASARA PROCESSION, A VISUAL NARRATIVE

R H KULKARNI

Professor, Dept of Art History, College of Fine Arts, Karnataka Chitrakala Parishath

The world famous annual event on the tenth day of Navaratri-Dasara of Mysuru culminates in a royal procession. People across the country and globe wait for this annual mega procession, which is held with great pomp and grandeur.

The Dasara procession has a historical and spiritual background associated with the ritualistic practices of the region. As known, Navaratri signifies the worship of the Nava Durga—the omnipresent energies of Shakti and symbolising the vanquishing of demons. The epic and Puranic accounts have interesting associations. Ramayana has a narrative directly associated with the killing of Dasha Kantha-Ravana by Rama to rescue Sita from him. It is celebrated as Vijaya Dashami, the Victory of the Tenth Day. Mahabharata has a narrative that marks the victory of the Pandavas over the Kauravas—on Vijaya Dashami. There is a prayer to Durga Vindhyavasini in Virata Parva of the Mahabharata. Apart from these, Varaha and Brahmanda Puranas explain in detail about how she attained the form of Durga and obtained the weapons from various Gods for killing demons. Taittiriya Samhita makes a reference to Mahishasuramardini. In the later Puranas, like Skanda, Kalika, Markandeya and Devi Bhagavatha, the procedure of worshipping goddess Durga and celebration of Navaratri are explained in detail.

Historical information about the celebration of Navaratri and Dasara in the southern part of India can be gleaned from the Vijayanagara period. Foreign travellers like Nicolo de Conti (1444–46), Abdur Razak (1442–43), Domingo Paes (1520–22) and Fernao Nuniz (1535–37) were astonished by the grandeur of the celebrations and have described them. It appears that Dasara celebrations commenced during the reign of Vijayanagara Emperor Devaraya II (r. 1426–44 CE). It was during Krishnadevaraya's period (r. 1509–1529 CE) that the celebrations reached the height of popularity. Dasara turned into a cultural festival that also marked the beginning of military expeditions or re-entering the city after victory on this auspicious day. The Mahanavami Dibba at Hampi is testimony to the grand celebrations in the Vijayanagara capital in the 15–16th centuries CE.

In the post-Vijayanagara period, the Mysore Wodeyars inherited and continued to perform the Dasara rituals and also conduct the Vijaya Dashami procession. Raj Wodeyar, the king of Mysore, started the Dasara celebrations from 1610 onwards. But it was during the reign of Kanthirava Narasaraj Wodeyar (r. 1638–1659) that the Dasara festival became an important celebration in Mysore state. Court poet Govinda Vaidya, in his work Kanthirava Narasaraj Vijayam, has described the grand celebrations. The Vijaya Dashami procession and other related rituals of the palace till the finale were systematised in this time. For instance, Vajra Mushti Kalaga was started during this period. The king's procession would be on a horse; he would greet the public and also receive gifts from his subordinates. The Dasara procession also represented the state's mighty power—army, horses, elephants, soldiers, etc. Literature of the time has beautiful documentation and narration of Dasara and palace rituals over the nine days.

Visual narrations of the Dasara procession started only during the time of Krishnaraja Wodeyar III (r. 1800–1868 CE). His period witnessed many political and socio-cultural changes as well. He became king after the defeat of Tipu Sultan and the princely throne was shifted from Srirangapatna to Mysore. From 1800, Dasara has been celebrated in a multifaceted way. Since Mysore came under colonial control, certain practices were newly introduced, such as British Durbar, a special function for colonial officers. Many additions were also seen such as a British band, soldiers dressed as the British carrying guns, palace music band along with chariots, palanquins and an elephant carrying a howdah with the king in it.

One of the early depictions of the royal procession of Dasara is in the city's Jaganmohan Palace. A large narration depicts King Krishnaraja Wodeyar seated in a chariot pulled by pairs of elephants. This painting was done in the early 1860s by the artist Tippaji. The narration has a three-tiered composition. In the foreground are a line of soldiers marching forward with their weapons. Their dresses like pyjama, kurta and turban follow the contemporary traditions. In the central line, the king's chariot is depicted and he is greeting his people. In the background are another group of people greeting their lord.

Another painting is found at Sri Rama Mandira at Kollegala in Chamarajanagar district. The walls of the Mandira are decorated with Dasara processions of Krishnaraja Wodeyar, datable to the 1840s. Though the painting is badly damaged in the lower portions, details of the subject can be ascertained. Interestingly the king is shown seated on a horse and receiving greetings from his citizens and officers. The soldiers are shown marching in the procession along with him. This shows that earlier, a horse was used in the procession to carry the king. In the previous painting, a chariot was shown.

Krishnaraja Wodeyar IV is considered the builder of Modern Mysore and also eulogised as a seer of politics. A painting by artist Keshvaiah depicts the Dasara procession of the king datable to 1928. Dasara became a state festival in his regime. He also started exhibitions of the industrial, agricultural and artistic productions as a mark of his state's progress. The king, his brother and nephew used to sit in the howdah. The kings' army, palace band, British band, traditional musicians, his office-bearers and selected citizens of Mysore all accompanied the procession. The grandness of royalty has now been replaced by a people's Dasara and procession. Instead of royal persona, the howdah carries the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari. The state's achievements and progress are depicted as tableaus.

Artists have always observed and depicted the activities of the Mysore royal palace. This essay is a tribute to the artists who have immortalised Dasara processions in visual narrations.

First Covid jab for kids

The approval of Covaxin for children aged 2–18 years by the Subject Expert Committee is a welcome development. We can take pride in the fact that Bharat Biotech's vaccine is the first to be approved for paediatric use. The DCGI should complete other formalities quickly so that it can be launched for commercial use. With Zydus Cadila's ZyCov-D also having been approved, the Centre should come up with a scheme for the production of these vaccines without delay.

S V Venkatakrishnan, Bengaluru

Vaccinate children quickly

It is indeed good news that Covaxin has been approved for children. As some states have already opened schools and many more are about to soon, there has been some anxiety among parents and teachers regarding the safety of children. It is imperative to get them vaccinated as soon as possible to avoid a possible third wave.

Can't stop fossil fuels yet

This is with reference to Power crisis a reminder of fossil fuel dependence (Oct 13). The editorial rightly highlights the dependence of the majority of the world on fossil fuels for electricity. Seeking alternatives for power production is a good step, but it cannot yet replace fossil fuels. For the time being, the best bet would be to reduce fossil fuel use gradually while slowly increasing renewable energy sources.

M Vineshragul, Thiruvananthapuram

Reduce dependence

Hats off to the newspaper for providing a timely alert on the grave future that we face while we remain heavily dependent on fossil fuels. The power crisis is a clear signal for us to reduce this dependence on fossil fuels. India must scale up its renewable energy production on a war footing, else our path towards development will be blocked.

Varuna relented, leading to the creation of Goa.

The Kerala High Court directing the state government to inform it about the steps being taken to remove unauthorised poles erected in public places has not come a day too soon. These poles are not only causing a law-and-order issue but also endangering the safety of moving vehicles and the public.

Rajnath under fire for Savarkar 'mercy' remark

Leaders from across political parties accuse Union defence minister of distorting history

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

DEFENCE Minister Rajnath Singh came under attack from several quarters over his comments that former Hindu Mahasabha leader Veer Savarkar had filed a mercy petition before the British government on Mahatama Gandhi's request. Leaders of various political parties said that the minister was twisting history.

AIMIM chief Asaduddin Owaisi alleged that BJP will soon declare Vinayak Damodar Savarkar as 'the father of the nation'. "They (BJP) are presenting distorted history. If this continues, they will remove Mahatma Gandhi and make Savarkar, who was accused of the murder of Mahatma Gandhi and was pronounced complicit in the inquiry of Justice Jeevan Lal Kapur, as the father of the nation," he said.

Owaisi and senior Congress leader Jairam Ramesh tweeted a letter by Gandhi written to Savarkar's brother on January 25, 1920, and accused Singh of giving a twist to what Gandhi wrote. "Rajnath Singhji is amongst the few sober and dignified voices in Modi Sarkar. But he doesn't seem to be free of this RSS habit of rewriting history. He has given a twist to what Gandhi actually wrote. Here is that letter to Savarkar's brother," tweeted Ramesh.

Speaking at the launch of the book Veer Savarkar: The Man Who Could Have Prevented Partition, Singh on Tuesday said: "Lies were spread about Savarkar. Time and again, it was said that he filed mercy petitions before the British government seeking his release from jail. It was Mahatma Gandhi who asked him to file mercy petitions."

Historian S Irfan Habib tweeted: "Yes, monochromatic history writing is really changing, led by the minister who claims Gandhi asked Savarkar to write mercy petitions. At least it is accepted now that he did write. No documentary evidence needed when the minister makes a claim. New history for New India."

Shiv Sena MP Sanjay Raut said Savarkar never apologised to the British. Raut said freedom fighters who spend more than 10 years in jail can adopt a strategy thinking they can do something after coming out of jail instead of remaining inside. "In politics or while serving imprisonment, a different strategy is adopted, Raut said. "If Savarkar had adopted such strategy, it cannot be called an apology."

Gehlot's Delhi trip sparks cabinet reshuffle talk

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

RAJASTHAN Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot's proposed visit to Delhi has intensified the buzz about changes in his government and the state Congress organisation. Gehlot will go to Delhi on October 16 to attend the Congress Working Committee meeting. The long-pending cabinet reshuffle and political appointments are likely to be discussed. These are set to get the green signal when Gehlot meets Congress president Sonia Gandhi.

Gehlot is not a member of the Congress Working Committee but CMs of Congress-ruled states have been attending these meetings. This will be Gehlot's second visit to Delhi this year, after February 27.

After the change of CM in Punjab, the announcement of two Assembly by-elections in Rajasthan and the heated politics in UP over the Lakhimpur tragedy, discussion about changes in the government and organisation in Rajasthan Congress got delayed. Now, politics in the desert state is all set to heat up once again.

The Sachin Pilot camp has been demanding a cabinet reshuffle for a long time. Apart from the MLAs coming to Congress from BSP, MLAs of Gehlot's camp also keep raising the demand for cabinet expansion and political appointments. State in-charge Ajay Maken has given deadlines. but neither cabinet reshuffle nor the work on political appointments and organisation expansion has progressed.

According to sources, Gehlot will discuss these with Sonia, Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra. He is also likely to meet senior leaders like KC Venugopal and Maken. The Working Committee meeting will discuss current political issues, Assembly elections and organisation elections, apart from other topics.

BJP leaders retaliate after Rajasthan CM calls them 'fools'

Jaipur: Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot is once again in the headlines for making controversial remarks. Last year, he had called Sachin Pilot nikamma or useless character. Now, he has run into trouble for calling some state BJP leaders 'fools'. Taking objection to his statement, BJP leaders have started hitting back at Gehlot and Rahul Gandhi. State BJP president Satish Poonia tweeted in response to Gehlot's remark, "Chief Minister has claimed that some people of Rajasthan BJP are fools. Please release the list of those idiots. From this, it is understood that you and Rahul Gandhi are the most intelligent people in the country and you should get a referendum done on this." This controversy erupted after the lynching of an SC youth in Hanumangarh district, over which BJP leaders have been attacking the Gehlot government. BJP leaders even connected the Hanumangarh issue with the Lakhimpur-Kheeri incident in Uttar Pradesh. BJP leaders said Priyanka and Rahul Gandhi are active in BJP-ruled UP but not in Rajasthan.

India slams China for opposing VP's Arunachal trip

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

INDIA on Wednesday slammed China for objecting to Vice-President M Venkaiah Naidu's visit to Arunachal Pradesh, saying that opposing the visit of Indian leaders to a state of India does not stand to the understanding of Indian people.

Emphasising that Arunachal Pradesh remains a part of India, Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Arindam Bagchi said, "We have noted the comments made by the Chinese official spokesperson. We reject such comments. Arunachal Pradesh is an integral and inalienable part of India. Indian leaders routinely travel to the state of Arunachal Pradesh as they do to any other state of India. Objecting to the visit of Indian leaders to a state of India does not stand to the reason and understanding of the Indian people."

China has been objecting to visits by Indian leaders to Arunachal Pradesh, saying it is a part of South Tibet. The latest war of words between the two sides came days after the 13th round of military talks on the 17-month eastern Ladakh standoff ended in a stalemate.

"As we have mentioned earlier, the current situation along the Line of Actual Control in the Western Sector of the India-China border areas has been caused by unilateral attempts of the Chinese side to alter the status quo in violation of bilateral agreements," Bagchi said.

COAL CRISIS FORCES COSTLY BUYS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

WHILE the Centre is scrambling to restore normalcy in coal supply to thermal power plants, several power deficit states have been forced to spend scarce resources on buying energy from the national exchange at extremely high rates to avoid power cuts.

Tenders for 15-minute real-time blocks are invited by the Indian Energy Exchange 1.5 hours before the actual sale. The normal cost through this mode is ₹5-6 per unit, but because of the crippling coal crisis, the rate has shot up to ₹20 a unit now.

Andhra Pradesh on Wednesday bought a peak hour block of 2,102 MW at ₹20 per unit for 15 minutes from 6.30 pm to 6.45 pm, and at the same rate from 7 pm to 7.15 pm. On Tuesday, it procured 2,000 MW in two 15-minute blocks at ₹20 a unit. On an average, the state buys 28-40 million units of power from private players in the market and exchanges daily.

Kerala, too, has been doing real-time buying of around 0.4-1.10 million units each day from the exchange, spending about ₹20 per unit.

As for Rajasthan, it has been forced to buy around 4 crore units of electricity each day at rates between ₹15 and ₹20 a unit. That works out a needless daily spend of around ₹80 crore. The rate during normal times is ₹3-4 per unit.

With Bihar Chief Minister promising uninterrupted power during the festival period, his government has been purchasing over 1,200 MW at ₹20 per unit to bridge the gap.

The Punjab government spent about ₹282 crore in the last 13 days to buy costly power from the exchange. On Wednesday, it bought 1,800 MW at ₹10.55 per unit. Its per unit deal with the exchange on Tuesday was for ₹14.06.

Reports from poll-bound UP indicate it struggling to manage its energy demand, as load shedding is continuing in rural areas. With about eight thermal units shut for want of coal, the state government has been compelled to purchase power from the exchange for around ₹13 a unit, yet the gulf between demand and supply remains.

On the flip side, Karnataka is selling power to the grid due to rise in its renewable energy generation. According a senior official from Power Company of Karnataka Ltd, the rate of sale of solar energy depends on the Indian Electricity Exchange and the Power Exchange of India Ltd, where prices fluctuate every 15 minutes.

Odisha and Telangana, too, sell energy to the national grid.

As for Tamil Nadu, it has not purchased power from private players through the spot price system since 2010. But officials at the Tamil Nadu Generation and Distribution Corporation Limited (Tangedco) in Chennai said, if the coal crisis continues, it may be forced to go to the spot market to procure energy.

BJP to launch caste outreach in run-up to UP Assembly polls

MANISH ANAND @New Delhi

SENSING consolidation of the minority vote base behind the Samajwadi Party in Uttar Pradesh, BJP will soon unveil a caste outreach in the run-up to next year's Assembly elections, with an eye on consolidation of the backward caste electoral constituencies.

The BJP is learnt to have planned to reach out to each caste, with plans to hold meetings with intellectuals, besides rallies and public meetings. With the understanding that upper castes will continue to back the party, the focus of the saffron outfit will be more on other backward castes, economically backward castes and most backward castes.

BJP will have a number of meetings and the various wings of the party will hold two such meetings in each of the constituencies, to work for the consolidation of the vote base in favour of the party, said a senior BJP functionary.

The BJP is sensing that the Muslim-Yadav consolidation will be the electoral template of the Samajwadi Party-led grand alliance if that takes the form on the line of the recent previous polls. "The minority vote base by and large will consolidate in favour of SP by taking a cue from the West Bengal Assembly elections where they strategically backed TMC across the state by distancing from Congress and Left parties.," said another senior BJP functionary.

Region-specific delicacies on the menu for train passengers

PARVEZ SULTAN @New Delhi

TRAIN passengers will soon be able to savour delicacies and famous products of cities on their route on board, with the railways planning to upgrade its catering service.

Officials said once the system is in place, one can buy oranges of Nagpur or Alphonso mangoes of Ratnagiri, Raigad, and Konkan regions through the e-catering service of the Indian Railway Catering and Tourism Corporation (IRCTC). Other items will be confectionaries from famous outlets or brands such as Agra's Petha, Gajak from Morena, Rasgulla of Bikaner, and Anarsa — a popular delicacy from Gaya.

"Shortly, we are going to add famous local food items and products to our catering service. These will be available at 1,200 important stations. The service can be availed anytime, anywhere," said an official.

According to officials, encouraging response and record bookings have prompted the company to introduce city-specific products, which are in demand. The on-board e-catering facility was resumed after a long break in August, which was suspended due to the Covid pandemic outbreak.

The number of bookings is going up gradually. The corporation has set a target of 20,000 orders per day. During the weekend, the IRCTC received a record number of meal orders — 32,000 — from October 8-10.

"The online food service was reintroduced recently. Passengers have started ordering food through e-catering service. Response has been good. We already had tie-ups with popular multinational fast-food joints and Indian brands such as McDonald's, KFC, Dominos, Haldiram, Bikanerwala, Sagar Ratna and others. This service was successful but halted due to Covid. Around 32,000 meals were booked on the weekend, which was the highest so far after the resumption of service," added the official. IRCTC has teamed up with over 500 restaurants to serve passengers.

Bail plea of minister's son binned

Two more held over Lakhimpur violence; Cong leaders meet Prez seeking minister's sacking

Congress delegation led by Rahul Gandhi comes out after meeting President Ram Nath Kovind at the Rashtrapati Bhavan in New Delhi on Wednesday | PARVEEN NEGI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Lucknow/New Delhi

A court on Wednesday denied bail to the main accused, Ashish Mishra, son of Union minister Ajay Mishra, in the Lakhimpur Kheri violence case, while two more persons were arrested in connection with the incident.

Ankit Das and Latif alias Kale, who appeared before the Special Investigation Team (SIT), were taken in custody after questioning and produced in court which sent them in judicial remand for 14 days.

With this, the total number of people arrested in connection with the mowing down of four farmers here on October 3 has gone to six.

While the police sought their custody for interrogation, their lawyer opposed it saying no recovery was to be done from them. The court reserved its order on the application for police remand of the two, they said.

Ashish Mishra and his alleged accomplice Ashish Pandey moved bail applications on Wednesday but they were rejected by Chief Judicial Magistrate Chinta Ram.

Ashish Mishra, who was arrested on October 9 by the special investigation team after 12 hours of questioning, had been sent to three days in police custody from Tuesday.

Cong submits memorandum

Stepping up pressure over the Lakhimpur incident, a Congress delegation led by Rahul Gandhi met President Ram Nath Kovind on Wednesday and urged him to ensure the immediate sacking of Ajay Mishra and an impartial probe by two sitting judges of the Supreme Court.

"There cannot be an impartial inquiry and justice cannot be given till the time the MoS Home is sacked. This is the voice of not just the families of those killed but also of all the farmers, and this voice is being suppressed," Gandhi said after meeting the President.

The Congress delegation included A K Antony, Ghulam Nabi Azad, Mallikarjun Kharge and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra.

Asked whether they have received any assurances from the President, Priyanka Gandhi claimed, "He (President) has assured us that he will talk to the government today itself".

Six men held so far for Oct 3 incident

Police have now arrested six people — Ashish Mishra, Luvkush, Ashish Pandey, Bharti, Ankit and Kale — in connection with the mowing down of four farmers on October 3

TOP JAISH COMMANDER KILLED IN ENCOUNTER

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Srinagar

A top Jaish-e-Mohammad militant commander was killed in an encounter with security forces in Tral area of south Kashmir's Pulwama district on Wednesday. The deceased was identified as Shamus-ud-Din Sofi alias Sham Sofi.

"As per police records, Sofi has been active from June 2019. He is figured among the list of most-wanted militants in the Valley. He is part of groups involved in attacks on security establishments and in civilian atrocities to which several cases have already been registered against him," a police official said.

IGP Kashmir Vijay Kumar termed the killing of Sofi as a "big success". With the killing of Jaish commander, eight militants and 5 security men have been killed in six gunfights in J&K in the last 72 hours.

'Will never be part of Pak'

National Conference president and three-time J&K CM, Farooq Abdullah on Wednesday said Kashmir would never become part of Pakistan.

"Kashmir will never become part of Pakistan. We are a part of India and will remain to be part of India come, what may. They (militants) can't change it even if they kill me," said Abdullah, who is chairman of the six-party Gupkar Alliance.

NIA arrests nine men in terror conspiracy case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Srinagar

THE National Investigation Agency (NIA) has arrested nine persons during raids in militancy-hit Kashmir over a conspiracy case.

An NIA spokesman said the sleuths on Wednesday carried out raids at two locations in Srinagar and arrested five persons — Mohammad Haneef Chiralu and Arif Farooq Bhat, both residents of Srinagar; Hafeez, resident of Budgam; Owais Dar resident of Pulwama, and Mateen Bhat, resident of Shopian.

During raids at 16 locations in Pulwama, Srinagar and Shopian districts on Tuesday, the central agency had arrested four persons — Waseem Ahmed Sofi, Tariq Ahmed Dar, Bilal Ahmed Mir alias Bilal Fufu and Tariq Ahmed Bafanda, all Srinagar residents.

Of the nine arrested, Tariq Ahmad had been imprisoned for almost a decade in the 2005 Delhi serial blasts case. He was acquitted in 2017.

The NIA is probing the case pertaining to conspiracy for undertaking violent acts in J&K and other major cities by cadres of Laskhar-e-Taiba (LeT), Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM), Hizb-ul-Mujahideen (HM), Al Badr and other outfits and their affiliates.

The NIA spokesman said that during the raids, the sleuths seized "electronic devices, incriminating jehadi documents and records of suspicious financial transactions".

Preliminary probe has revealed that arrested persons are associates of proscribed organisations and have been supporting terrorists in their nefarious designs, he said.

PANEL IN SRINAGAR TO PROBE HARASSMENT OF SCRIBES

"Any journalist or persons of media fraternity who are desired to meet the team can contact on: 9419007064," an official spokesman said. On September 29, PCI constituted the FFC to look into the harassment of journalists in the UT.

Aryan part of international racket: NCB

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

BOLLYWOOD actor Shah Rukh Khan's son Aryan Khan is linked to the international drug network and is involved in drug trafficking as well as consumption, the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) told a Mumbai court on Wednesday.

The submissions were made before Special Judge V V Patil, designated to hear matters related to the NDPS Act, during the hearing of the bail plea filed by Aryan and the co-accused.

The NCB said initial probe had revealed that Aryan was in touch with some persons abroad who appeared to be a part of an international drug network for illicit procurement. "The investigation requires sufficient time to properly investigate the said linkages so as to approach the concerned foreign agency through a proper channel," the agency argued.

Prima facie, there was sufficient material in the form of WhatsApp chats and pictures etc. to show that Khan was an active part of the illicit drug chain along with others.

Calling the NCB's charge "inherently absurd", senior advocate Amit Desai said no drugs were found on Aryan. "They are some young kids. In many countries these substances are legal. Let us not penalise (them) in bail… They have suffered enough," he said.

The court will continue the hearing on Thursday.

Move to extend BSF jurisdiction slammed

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE Punjab government as well as political parties in the state reacted sharply to the Centre's decision to empower the Border Security Force (BSF) to carry out searches and arrests and make seizures up to an area of 50 km from the International Border (IB) with Pakistan and Bangladesh. Earlier, the BSF was only empowered to take action up to 15 km inside Punjab.

Slamming the Centre for the recent amendment in Section 139 of the BSF Act, Chief Minister Charanjit Singh Channi tweeted that it was "a direct attack on federalism" and urged Union Home Minister Amit Shah to "immediately rollback this irrational decision".

Deputy Chief Minister Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa said he would soon personally call on PM Modi and Home Minister Shah to resolve this issue. He categorically said that the CM had neither raised this issue with the Centre nor asked for enhancing the jurisdiction of BSF.

The Shiromani Akali Dal alleged the move was akin to imposition of "President's Rule through the back door in nearly half of Punjab". This "devious attempt" to place the state under the central rule must and will be opposed, SAD leader Daljit Singh Cheema said.

Former state Congress president Sunil Jakhar attacked his own government and tweeted: "Be careful what you ask for! Has @CHARANJITCHANNI unwittingly managed to hand over half of Punjab to Central govt. 25,000 sq km (out of total 50,000sq km) has now been placed under BSF jurisdiction. Punjab Police stands castigated"

However, former CM Amarinder Singh came out in support of the move. "BSF's enhanced presence & powers will only make us stronger. Let's not drag armed forces into politics," his advisor tweeted.

Garba ruckus: Kin of student to move HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

ALLEGING their son was arrested from a garba venue in Indore under pressure from Bajrang Dal activists, the family of 21-year-old BCom student Adnan Shah is planning to move the high court.

Four youths from the minority community were arrested from Oxford International College after Bajrang Dal activists barged into the garba venue at the college on Sunday evening and created ruckus over the presence of non-Hindus.

Adnan claimed he was roped in as a volunteer for the event. "I'm a student of the Oxford College and was among the 25 volunteers (all students). I was not even present inside, but was supervising the vehicle parking outside. Suddenly 100-150 men claiming to be from Bajrang Dal barged in and started enquiring about the identities of all those present. Despite showing them my volunteer card, they told me that being a Muslim, I could not be present at the garba," Adnan said.

Prashant Chaubey, additional SP, Indore West, denied that the police acted under pressure. "Proper legal process has been followed… Even the event organiser was booked for allowing more visitors."

BJP targeting kin of ministers: Pawar

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

NCP chief Sharad Pawar on Wednesday alleged that since the BJP failed to topple the Maha Vikas Aghadi government in Maharashtra, it was targeting close relatives and associates of the ministers in the state government.

Addressing a press conference, the veteran politician said that in his 56 years of career, he had never seen such "blatant misuse of power" by the central government.

His statement comes days after the Income Tax sleuths searched the properties of relatives of NCP leader and Deputy CM Ajit Pawar.

"BJP has been trying to unstable Uddhav Thackeray-led government, but has failed in all its attempts. Therefore, as a new strategy, they are targeting the people who are close to or relatives of the ministers. The raid is not at Ajit Pawar but on the properties owned by his sisters and son. A similar thing happened with Congress minister Ashok Chavan and Shiv Sena minister Subhash Desai whose close associates and relatives were targetted by conducting raids," Pawar said.

Pawar also took jibe at former CM Devendra Fadnavis for his statement that he still felt like being the CM. "It is a good thing that I couldn't feel so even though I was a four-time CM," Pawar said.

'Mahapapis' must apologise before returning: Rawat

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

FORMER Uttarakhand CM Harish Rawat on Wednesday termed the nine rebels who had left the Congress and joined the BJP in 2016 "mahapaapis (great sinners)" and said they should publicly apologise before being allowed to rejoin the grand old party.

Rawat said whatever happened in 2016 using money was "khareed farokht (horse trading)" which was termed "mahapaap (great sin)" by the former prime minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

"Former PM Vajpayee called it 'mahapaap'. If they (the defectors) want to come back to the Congress they must accept that they have sinned. This is not about destabilising my government in 2016 but smearing the parliamentary culture of Uttarakhand. And that was done using money," said Rawat.

CM proved he shouldn't be underestimated

Political rivals often underestimate Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray. They have been proved wrong time and again. During the Chipi (Sindhudurg) airport inauguration, Union Minister Narayan Rane claimed credit for the facility and criticised the Shiv Sena. But he forgot that the last speaker was Thackeray, who never leaves any opportunity to show the right place for his opponents. The CM, rather than deploying his typical style and punch, used sarcasm to attack Rane. He used puns to deliver the message and the speech turned out one of the best political speeches in recent history. It has sent out a message that CM Thackeray should not be taken lightly.

Who is better than Nawab Malik to attack NCB?

NCP chief spokesperson Nawab Malik's 'exposes' on the Narcotic Control Bureau (NCB) and the involvement of private citizens and a BJP leader have changed the entire narrative of the drug bust on luxury cruise ship. Many argue that instead of Nawab Malik, another leader from the NCP should have led the attack on the anti-drug enforcement agency. They say the arrest and release of Nawab Malik's son-in-law in a drug-related case has weakened the big expose on NCB and its director, Sameer Wankhede. However, the reality in NCP is that there is no better person than Malik, who has the courage to expose the opponents due to his long experience as the party's chief spokesperson and his knack of media and its demand for visuals and evidence.

Congress chief finally gets his list cleared

The Congress party recently declared a jumbo list of office-bearer for its Maharashtra unit, but the names recommended by state Congress president Nana Patole were missing from the list. Subsequently, Patole expressed his displeasure and even met Rahul Gandhi. Then, as a course correction, the Congress high command approved the names that were left out from the initial list. This development shows that the grand old party does not want to antagonise Patole who brought spectacular victory for Congress in local body elections by emerging as the single largest party in taluka panchayat polls.

Indispensable Kamboj and NCP's charges

The NCP has claimed that BJP leader Mohit Kamboj aka Bhartiya has links with the raid on the cruise ship. The party alleged Rishabh Sachdeva, brother-in-law of Kamboj, was one of the detainees by the NCB, but was let off. Kamboj was close to BJP leader Ashish Shelar but is now with the Devendra Fadnavis camp. Fadnavis had been visiting Kamboj's residence during Ganesh festival in the last several years, but skipped it this year after a bank fraud case against Kamboj surfaced. Kamboj had managed the arrangements of Jan Ashirwad Yatra of the saffron party in the state along with MLA Prasad Lad.

US to reopen land borders in Nov to vaccinated visitors

Process in 2 phases; jabs not mandatory for essential travel in first

WASHINGTON

THE US will open its and borders with Mexico and Canada in early November to non-essential travelers who are fully vaccinated against Covid-19, a senior White House official announced on Tuesday.

The official said the administration would give the "precise date very soon"— both for land crossings as well as international air travel, which would be timed to "go together."

The United States had already announced in September that it would lift bans in November on all vaccinated air passengers who undergo testing and contact tracing.

In an effort to slow the spread of the coronavirus, US borders were closed in March 2020 to travelers coming from the European Union, Britain and China, with India and Brazil added to the list later. Overland visitors from Mexico and Canada were also banned.

The nearly 19 months of restrictions led to both personal and economic suffering.

The White House source said the land border re-opening would happen in two phases.

Initially, vaccines will be required for "non-essential" trips — such as visiting family or tourism — though unvaccinated travelers will still be allowed into the country for "essential" trips as they have been for the last year and a half.

A second phase beginning in "early January" 2022 will require all visitors to the United States to be fully vaccinated, no matter the reason for their trip. "This phased approach will provide ample time for essential travelers such as truckers or others to get vaccinated, enabling a smooth transition to the new system," the official said.

The senior official pointed to recent recommendations from US health authorities for guidance on which vaccines would allow travelers entry.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) said last week that all vaccines approved by the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the World Health Organization (WHO) would be accepted for entry by air, the official pointed out.

"While the CDC hasn't made a final determination here, I anticipate that that would be the same for land travel as well," the official said, explaining that the AstraZeneca vaccine, which is not administered in the US, would be accepted.

The rule change will only apply to legal land crossings into the country, the official said.

"Title 42" -- the controversial Trump-era rule continued by the Biden administration which allows those crossing illegally to be deported for public health reasons -- will remain in place, the official said. AFP

E.U. to offer fewer checks at n Ireland border

BRUSSELS

THE EU will on Wednesday offer to reduce customs checks on goods entering Northern Ireland from the rest of the UK, in a bid to solve problems in post-Brexit trading arrangements in the hope of averting a new battle brewing with Britain.

A team of EU negotiators was to deliver the plans to London, a day after the UK's Brexit Minister David Frost said the current arrangements on Northern Ireland—known as the Protocol —should be ripped up. The EU refuses to renegotiate the protocol, which was the source of biggest friction in Britain's drawn-out divorce from the European Union after it voted to leave the bloc in 2016.

At stake is preserving peace and stability on the island of Ireland, which is split between the EU-member the Republic of Ireland and the UK's Northern Ireland.

During the Brexit negotiations, Britain accepted that Northern Ireland would remain partly under EU rules, creating a de facto trade border within the United Kingdom.

This has required new checkpoints at ports to stop the risk of goods from England, Scotland and Wales getting into the EU by the back door.

But pro-UK unionists in Northern Ireland fear that would strengthen pro-Irish republicans' case for a united Ireland. London is now seeking to rewrite the protocol. It wants to banish the role of the EU court in solving conflicts within the protocol. That is a non-starter for the Europeans.

Failure by the EU to overhaul the protocol "would be a historic misjudgement," Frost argued in a speech on Tuesday.

European Commission Vice President Maros Sefcovic was to present the EU plans to reporters later Wednesday. Brussels says they are based on a thorough appraisal of the problems on the ground in Northern Ireland. They will include ways to make it easier for products destined for Northern Ireland from mainland Britain to pass customs checks, as well as special exceptions from EU rules for medicines.

This would solve for example the so-called "sausage war" in which UK authorities accused the EU of purist food safety rules that would deny Northern Ireland chilled meats.

To keep British-made sausages on the shelves, the UK unilaterally extended post-Brexit grace periods that allowed for their import into Northern Ireland. AFP

'Shipping crunch may last 9 months'

LONDON

THE world's biggest container ports will remain clogged up for six to nine months because of the supply chain crisis, the British Ports Authority warned on Wednesday.

The gloomy forecast came one day after Danish shipping giant AP Moller-Maersk revealed it has started diverting traffic away from Britain's biggest container port Felixstowe on the eastern English coast.

The firm is redirecting containerships to continental ports like Rotterdam and Antwerp, before switching to smaller vessels for UK deliveries. "The congestion in general will last for another six to nine months," British Ports Authority policy director Mark Simmonds said.

Britain is also suffering from soaring energy prices, shortages of goods, and motor fuel delivery issues, with post-Brexit immigration controls and Covid among causes cited by experts. AFP

Mystery illness now affects staff at US's Colombia embassy

NEW YORK/BAGOTA

COLOMBIAN President Ivan Duque said on Tuesday that his government is aware of cases of so-called "Havana Syndrome" at the US Embassy in Bogota, but is leaving the investigation to Washington.

At least five US families associated with the embassy in Colombia have come down with symptoms associated with the mysterious affliction, which include headaches, nausea and possible brain damage, the Wall Street Journal reported.

"Of course we have knowledge of this situation but I want to leave it to the US authorities, who are doing their own investigation, because it is about their own personnel," Duque told reporters in New York during an official US visit in which he has also visited Washington.The Colombia cases are only the latest of dozens of instances of "Havana Syndrome" experienced by US diplomats and intelligence officials since 2016 —first in Cuba then in China, Germany, Australia, Taiwan and the US capital.

US President Joe Biden on Friday signed a law providing financial support for victims of the mysterious illness.

The Havana Act provides financial compensation for members of the State Department and CIA who suffer brain injury from what officials suspect may be directed microwave attacks. The cause of the illnesses has not been fully diagnosed and the identity of the attacker, if there is one, has not been revealed.The Cuban government investigated the matter and has repeatedly rejected US statements on the matter as disinformation. AFP

HARVARD MOVES MANDARIN COURSE TO TAIWAN

BEIJING

IN a snub to China, Harvard University is moving its Chinese language programme from Beijing to Taipei, the capital of Taiwan, from next year after complaining of an "unwelcoming environment" from the host institution here.

"The programme decided to move to Taipei due to a perceived lack of friendliness from the host institution, Beijing Language and Culture University' (BLCU)," Jennifer Liu, director of the Harvard Beijing Academy summer study abroad programme, told student newspaper The Harvard Crimson.

The shifting of the programme by the Ivy league American University to Taiwan is regarded as a snub to China which considers the estranged island as part of the mainland.

Liu said in recent years, the Harvard programme began to have difficulties accessing the needed classrooms and dorms.

For instance, the BLCU did not provide a single dorm for all the students, instead requiring the programme to split the students into two different dorms of different quality, or to find a hotel that could keep their students together, The Harvard Crimson report said.

"Given the condition they provided, we really couldn't run the programme with the quality that we are hoping to deliver to our students," Liu said. "Liu suspects that the unwelcoming environment may be a product of a subtle shift in the Chinese government's attitudes towards US institutions, one precipitated by (President) Xi Jinping's rise to power," Harvard Crimson report said.

However, William Kirby, a professor of China Studies and chairman of the Harvard Centre Shanghai, said the switch was made for purely logistical reasons, and collaborations between the Ivy League university and Chinese academics were continuing.

"This is not a time in which this university is retreating from its engagement with China ' it's actually seeking every way possible to deepen it," Kirby told the newspaper. PTI

Congress averts default with debt limit hike

WASHINGTON

THE US House of Representatives has approved a short-term increase to the nation's debt limit, ensuring the federal government can continue fully paying its bills into December and temporarily averting an unprecedented default that would have decimated the economy.

The $480 billion increase in the country's borrowing ceiling cleared the Senate last week on a party-line vote.

The House approved it Tuesday so President Joe Biden can sign it into law this week.

Infosys net profit beats forecasts; jumps 12% in Q2

Wipro Q2 net profit rises 19%; falls 10% sequentially to `2,930 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

TWO of India's leading IT companies -Infosys and Wipro- reported positive quarterly performance that managed to beat the street's estimate, unlike market leader TCS that missed the mark last week.

India's second largest software exporter - Infosys - on Wednesday reported 12% growth in consolidated net profit at ₹5,421 crore for the second quarter ended September 30, 2021, compared to ₹4,845 crore in the same quarter last year. Its revenue during the quarter rose 20% Year-on-Year to ₹29,602 .

The Bengaluru-based company also raised its annual revenue outlook between 16.5% and 17.5% in the financial year to March 2022, compared with its July prediction of 14% to 16% growth. It, however, maintained its annual margin forecast at 22% to 24%. Infosys also highlighted that large deal signings stood at $2.15 billion in Q2FY22, compared with $2.6 billion in the June quarter and $3.15 billion a year earlier

"As we witness a strong market opportunity with global enterprises rapidly accelerating their digital journeys, our sustained investments in expanding capabilities, including the differentiated cloud play, Infosysy CobaltTM, has uniquely positioned us to continue serving our clients effectively, gain market share and emerge as the preferred cloud and digital transformation partner in the market," said Salil Parekh, CEO and MD of Infosys.

He also informed that functioning of the income tax portal is stabilizing and close to 1.9 crore returns have been filed using the new system.

The company also announced expanding its fresher hiring program to 45,000 for the year. This comes at a time when its attrition spiked to 20.1% compared to 13.9% in the previous quarter amidst strong battle between companies to attract talent at a premium salary.

Wipro, the other Bengaluru-based IT major reported a 9.6% sequential decline in consolidated net profit in Q2FY22 to ₹2,930.7 crore, which was still above analysts' expectations. Its net profit surged 19% yoy. The company's consolidated revenue for the quarter climbed 7.7% quarter-on-quarter to ₹19,667.4 crore.

Jatin Dalal, Chief Financial Officer of Wipro, said, "We sustained our operating margins in Q2 in a narrow band even after absorbing the full impact of our recent acquisitions and investing significantly in our business across sales, capabilities and talent."

Mindtree reports 57% YoY increase in net profit

IT services firm Mindtree reported a net profit of ` 398.9 crore for the quarter ended September 30, 2021, up 57.2% YoY. The company's revenue was up 34.3% to `2,586.2 crore. "We are pleased to report yet another outstanding quarter of all-round performance," said Debashis Chatterjee, CEO and Managing Director, Mindtree. He added, "We maintained EBITDA margin at 20.5% while making aggressive investments in further expanding our domain, digital and leadership capabilities, geographic footprint, and hyperscaler partnerships."

Air India should have been wound up 10 years ago: DIPAM Secretary

DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi

AIR India's balance sheet was so distorted that it should have been wound up 10 years ago, says Tuhin Kanta Pandey, secretary, Department of Investment and Public Asset Management (DIPAM).

"Any person with basic knowledge of balance sheets would know for themselves how bad the finances of the airlines were," says Pandey while responding to criticism that the government let go of Air India cheaply even while keeping 75% of the debt on its book.

The successful bidder – Tata Group – paid ₹18,000 crore which comprise ₹2,700 crore in cash and acquisition of ₹15,300 crore debt. The total debt on the books of Air India was ₹61,000 crore, of which the government retained ₹46,000 crore.

Explaining the finances of Air India, the DIPAM Secretary said that the airlines' net worth was negative ₹44,000 crore and it had losses of ₹83,000 crore in its books.

"Those who are saying they (Tatas) are taking away only quarter of the debt, (they must answer) why they should take on their books the losses. The new acquirer has nothing to do with those losses in last 10 years. Technically, the debt that was there had to be paid by the government because of the sovereign guarantee," says Tuhin Kanta Pandey.

He says that debt was continuously taken to fund the losses. The government could bring in money in a loss-making company because of the government guarantee. A government guarantee meant any lender would pay because if the company failed to pay, the government would.

"This money that you are saying is debt is nothing but government equity which was not paid," he explains.

He further says that the bidding was done through a transparent process and that the government made all efforts to ensure there were more bidders.

"We allowed foreign airlines, NRIs could take stake up to 100%, consortium was also allowed. We decreased the Net worth criteria from ₹5,000 crore to ₹3,500 crore, so that entry barrier was also expanded," he says.

Bidders, based on their assessment of the cost and the earning capacity of the airlines, put in their bid, and highest bidder won, says Pandey.

Debt was continuously taken to fund the losses. The government could bring in money in a loss-making company because of the government guarantee.

COAL CRISIS

Reports of coal shortage baseless: FM

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@New Delhi

WHILE states are raising concerns over coal shortage, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman dismissed the reports of coal shortage as "absolutely baseless", saying supply chain is not broken and India is a power surplus country.

"Absolutely baseless! There is no shortage of anything. In fact, if I recall the minister's statement, every power producing installation has the next four days' stock absolutely available within their own premises and the supply chain has not broken at all," Sitharaman said here at Harvard Kennedy School on Tuesday.

During her interaction at the Mossavar-Rahmani Center for Business and Government, She was asked by Harvard Professor Lawrence Summers about energy shortage and reports of reduced coal inventories in India.

"There are not going to be any deficiencies which may lead to any shortfall of supply. So that takes care of India's power situation. We are now a power surplus country."

Sitharaman said that Power Minister RK Singh went on record just two days ago when he said absolutely baseless information is floating around that there is probably shortage of coal, shortage of other inventories. which will lead to a sudden gap in the supply-demand situation in the energy consumption.

Meanwhile the Aluminium Association of India has written a letter to Coal India Chairman about coal shortage.

"Despite untiring efforts of MoC and CIL to support the industry, the current acute coal crunch due to various factors which has created an immensely precarious situation, majorly for the highly power intensive industries like Aluminium wherein coal accounts for 40% of the production cost," a letter from the Association said.

PM launches ₹100-L cr Gati Shakti plan

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

IN order to develop multi-modal connectivity, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Wednesday launched Gati Shakti Master plan, a ₹100-lakh crore national master plan to develop infrastructure in the country that will reduce logistic costs and boost the economy.

The GatiShakti plan involves the creation of a common umbrella platform through which infrastructure projects can be planned and implemented in an efficacious manner by way of coordination between various ministries on a real-time basis.

The project aims to connect two lakh km of national highways, doubling gas pipeline network to 35,000 km, increasing number of airports, and developing 11 industrial corridors, with an expected investment of ₹100 lakh crore.

Stating that high logistics cost in India at 13% of GDP was impacting competitiveness in exports, he said PM Gati Shakti is aimed at reducing logistic cost and turnaround time.

The Prime Minister said, due to the wide gap between macro planning and micro implementation problems of lack of coordination, lack of advance information, thinking and working in silos are leading to hampered construction and wastage of budget. He added that the Master Plan will address this and will lead to optimum utilisation of resources.

Modi said taxpayers' money in the past was 'insulted' through a lethargic approach to development work, with departments working in silos and no coordination on projects.

Gati Shakti joins different departments for the coordinated development of projects from road to railways and aviation to agriculture, the Prime Minister said. "With the whole-of-government approach, the collective power of the government is being channelled into fulfilling the schemes"

PM also inaugurated the New Exhibition Complex at Pragati Maidan.

RIL'S SHOPPING SPREE POSITIVE FOR INVESTORS

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

CONTINUING its aggressive foray into the renewable space, Reliance Industries, through its unit Reliance New Energy Solar Ltd (RNESL), has now invested 25 million euros in German "green solar wafers" technology company NexWafe GmbH and formed a partnership with Danish company Stiesdal A/S for hydrogen electrolyser.

These acquisitions, according to market experts, are positive for the company and its investors. "These investments could generate 20% EBITDA over time and in absolute terms generate EBITDA equal to its petrochemical arm. Long-term investors of Reliance Industries may be happy about the gradual transition of the company to the carbon neutral stage which may generate higher investor interest going forward," Deepak Jasani, Head of Retail Research, HDFC Securities told TNIE. RIL stock has surged nearly 14% in the last one month and on Wednesday it closed 1% higher at ₹2,695.90.

The two new deals come just a few days after the company announced acquisition of 100% stake in solar panel manufacturer REC Solar Holdings AS from China's National Bluestar Group for an enterprise value of $771 million. It also announced acquisition of a 40% stake in Sterling & Wilson Power, which is into engineering, procurement and construction for solar power projects.

These investments are in line with RIL boss Mukesh Ambani's plans of investing ₹75,000 crore over the next three years in clean energy over three years. Reliance has set a target to build solar capacity of at least 100 gigawatts (GW) by 2030, accounting for over a fifth of India's target of installing 450 GW by the end of this decade.

According to Girishkumar Kadam, Senior Vice President & Co-Group Head - Corporate Ratings, ICRA, overall investment prospects in renewable sector - mainly in solar & wind energy, remains solid. Kadam expects incremental 60-65 GW of renewable energy capacity addition to happen between March 2021 and March 2025, which would be led by solar energy with a dominant share of 75-80%, followed by wind energy segment.

On the current credit profile of the sector, Kadam said renewable entities have so far remained stable.

Global debt jumps to record $226 trn: IMF

WASHINGTON: DUE to the COVID-19 and policies put in place to respond to it, the global debt has jumped to a new high of $226 trillion with India's dues projected to rise to 90.6% in 2021, the International Monetary Fund said on Wednesday.

Advanced economies and China contributed more than 90% to the accumulation of world-wide debt in 2020. The remaining emerging economies and low-income developing countries contributed only around seven per cent.

'Because of Covid-19, and of policies put in place to respond to it, debt levels increased fast and reached high levels. High and rising levels of public and private debt are associated with risks to financial stability and public finances,' IMF Director of Fiscal Affairs Department Vitor Gaspar told reporters during a release of the 2021 Fiscal Monitor Report. 'The debt of governments, households and non-financial corporations added up to $226 trillion in 2020 ' $27 trillion above 2019. This increase is, by far, the largest on record,' he said. This figure includes both public and non-financial private sector debt

The IMF said India's debt increased from 68.9% of its GDP in 2016 to 89.6% in 2020. It is projected to jump to 90.6% in 2021 and then decline to 88.8% in 2022, to reach 85.2% in 2026. Constraints on financing are particularly severe for poorer countries, Gasper said, adding debt is expected to decline this year and next ' by about 1 percentage point of GDP per year. PTI

Centre scraps import duty on edible oils

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

IN order to keep the price of cooking oil under control, the Centre on Wednesday scrapped the effective import duty on crude palm oil, crude soya oil and crude sunflower oil from 24.75% to nil, and slashed agri cess on imports.

The duty cuts will be effective from October 14 and will remain in force till March 31, 2022, the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) said in a notification.

However, duties on refined soya oil and refined sunflower oil still remain in place.

Agriculture cess on crude soya-bean oil and crude sunflower oil has been reduced from 20% to 5%. Crude palm oil will attract agri infrastructure development cess (AIDC) of 7.5%.

Post the reduction, the effective customs duty on crude varieties of palm, soyabean and sunflower oil will be 8.25%, 5.5% and 5.5% respectively. The basic customs duty on edible grade soyabean oil, edible grade sunflower oil, refined bleached deodorized (RBD) palm oil, RBD palmolein, RBD palm stearin and any palm oil other than crude palm oil, has been reduced from 32.5% to 17.5%.

Earlier on Sunday, the government had imposed stock limits on edible oils and oilseeds till end of March to prevent hoarding. It also suspended futures trading on mustard oil and oilseeds on the National Commodity & Derivatives Exchange Limited (NCDEX) with effect from October 8.

According to the National Statistical Office data, even when the inflation in food basket eased to 0.68% in September 2021, the oils and fats category saw inflation at 34.19%.

Tata Motors' shares on an upward trajectory; surge 20% to close at ₹510

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

TATA Motors Ltd's shares are showing no signs of slowing down. After gaining over 45% in one month till Tuesday, the stocks jumped 20% on Wednesday to close at ₹509.70.

This sharp rise comes on the back of ₹7,500-crore investment committed by TPG Rise Climate in Tata Motors' new subsidiary, EVCo, which will spearhead the group's passenger electric mobility business.

Analysts at Emkay Global termed this development as 'India's Tesla Moment' and said that the TPG-Tata Motor's deal may redefine India's auto landscape as investments of such magnitude indicate confidence about India's future EV potential. "We believe that large investments, more product options and favourable government policies will accelerate the pace of EV adoption." Analysts at Motilal Oswal value Tata's EV business at $5.4 billion on a discounted cash flow basis "Even if we benchmark EVCo valuations to the deal valuations of $6.7b (at the lower band), considering equity conversion is planned for FY27, we would discount back the deal valuation to Sep'23E (our TP date). This implies ₹80/share for the EVCo."

"While the India CV business would see a cyclical recovery, the India PV business would witness a structural recovery. JLR is witnessing a cyclical recovery, supported by a favorable product mix… We maintain our Buy rating with a target price of Rs 560/share (Sep'23E-based SoTP)," said the brokerage.

IBM to skill 30 million people globally by 2030

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

IBM Corp. on Wednesday announced 170 new partnerships and program expansions in more than 30 countries, in an aim to skill 30 million people globally by 2030.

The effort will leverage IBM's existing programs and career building platforms to expand access to education and in-demand technical roles, the company said in a statement..

"IBM's plan to educate 30 million people relies on its broad combinations of programs, and includes collaborations with universities and key government entities -- including employment agencies. Partnerships extend to NGOs as well, particularly those that focus on groups such as underserved youth, women, and military veterans," it said.

"Talent is everywhere; training opportunities are not," said Arvind Krishna, IBM Chairman and CEO. "This is why we must take big and bold steps to expand access to digital skills and employment opportunities so that more people – regardless of their background – can take advantage of the digital economy."

According to the World Economic Forum (WEF), closing the global skills gap could add $11.5 trillion to global GDP by 2028.

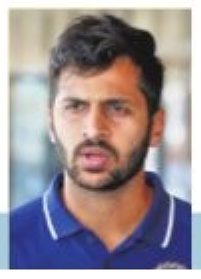
Shardul replaces Axar in India's World Cup squad



Fast bowling all-rounder Shardul Thakur replaced Axar Patel in India's squad for the T20 World Cup to be held in the UAE and Oman from October 17. The 29-year-old Thakur has impressed with his 18 wickets in the IPL for Chennai Super Kings. With Hardik Pandya, who plays for Mumbai Indians, not bowling during the IPL because of fitness issues, the selectors wanted a cover for him.

Kolkata storm into final after Capital failure

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

SHARJAH Cricket Stadium is historically known for its shiny pitches, batting friendly conditions and high-scoring contests with the smaller size boundaries assisting the batsmen. The 2020 edition of the Indian Premier League, more or less, witnessed the same. But the second leg of the 2021 season has been quite different. The slower pitches have made it tricky for the batsmen.

Teams have also read the conditions quite well at the venue. In the second Qualifier on Wednesday, Kolkata Knight Riders's skipper Eoin Morgan won the toss and had no hesitation in fielding first. It was understandable as posting a total has been a challenge. The Englishman must have been a tad happier as they restricted their opponents to 135/5. However, Delhi managed to take match until penultimate ball after openers Venktesh Iyer (55) and Shubman Gill (46) helped team to a comfortable position. At the end, Kolkata needed 13 from the last four overs, which looked easy. But, Kolkata panicked with wickets falling regularly and they needed six off the last two balls. Rahul Tripathi hit R Ashwin for a six to emerge victorious.

It was such a track where the Delhi batsmen never really felt in even after having spent decent time in the middle. Shikhar Dhawan's 39-ball 36 being an example, where he could not change gears as he wanted. Hence, the first six overs was always going to be important and Morgan was aware of the importance of removing the Delhi openers — Shikhar Dhawan and Prithvi Shaw — quickly. The latter (18) did look dangerous, but he did not survive for long to make a huge impact as he was dismissed by Varun Chakaravarthy (2/26). Kolkata attacked Delhi with spin right from the outset. In the first 10 overs, seven were bowled by spinners, who did not try anything fancy, just concentrating on bowling tight line and length. Even Pant perished trying to improve scoring rate.

Brief scores: Delhi 135/5 (Dhawan 36, Shreyas 30 n.o) lost to Kolkata 136/7 in 19.5 ovs (Iyer 55, Gill 46)

Karnataka out of Vinoo Mankad Trophy

BENGALURU: Karnataka have been knocked out of the BCCI U19 Vinoo Mankad Trophy as they lost to Maharashtra in the quarterfinal by 70 runs in Ahmedabad on Wednesday. Chasing 186 for victory, Karnataka were all out for 115 runs with RS Hangargekar and SS Kharat taking three wickets each. Earlier, SS Dhas scored 92 to help Maharashtra score 185 runs.

State U-19 women's team in semifinal

BENGALURU: Roshini Kiran played a solid knock to help Karnataka beat Delhi by eight wickets and reach the semifinals of the U19 women's one day trophy in Jaipur. Delhi were all out for 134 runs with Mithila Vinod and Chandasi Krishnamurthy taking three wickets each. Roshini remained unbeaten on 81 to reach the target in the 40th over.

HOW THEY FARED

Team India announced on Wednesday their final 15-man squad for the upcoming T20 World Cup in the UAE. Shardul Thakur, who was earlier in the stand-bys, has now found a place in the squad while Axar Patel has slid into the reserves. Here's a look at how each of the players fared in the IPL

VIRAT KOHLI (CAPTAIN)
Another tough season for the RCB captain. Having announced that this will be his last as a skipper, he would have been hoping to sign off on a high. Another year without a trophy will add pressure.
405 RUNS IN 15 MATCHES

ROHIT SHARMA
Having led Mumbai to unparalleled success, he can be excused as far as the team's below-par season is concerned. He will be livid, though, that he didn't do more with the bat.
381 RUNS IN 13 MATCHES

SURYAKUMAR YADAV
By his standards, this was a disappointing season for Yadav. He would have wanted to go into the T20 World Cup with a deluge of runs behind him, but sadly that isn't the case.
317 RUNS IN 14 MATCHES

HARDIK PANDYA
The biggest question mark when it came to finalising India's squad was surrounding Hardik. The numbers don't make for pretty reading. Scored just 127 runs and did not even bowl.
127 RUNS IN 12 MATCHES

KL RAHUL
While Punjab haven't had a lot of success, KL Rahul's own performances have been exemplary. After scoring 670 runs in the 2020 edition, he again breached the 600-run barrier.
626 RUNS IN 13 MATCHES

ISHAN KISHAN
After a poor start to the UAE leg, the young left-hander ended the season with a bang with some luscious big-hitting. Has made an irresistible case for inclusion in the India starting XI.
241 RUNS IN 10 MATCHES

RISHABH PANT
In his first season as captain, the gloveman has had quite a lot on his plate. Has been steady with the bat without producing the match-winning innings that he is capable of.
419 RUNS IN 16 MATCHES

RAVINDRA JADEJA
Jadeja has been pivotal in CSK reaching the final. As usual, steady with the ball and spectacular with the bat. Hard to think of more reliable finishers.
227 RUNS AND 11 WKTS IN 15 MATCHES

R ASHWIN
Having been a surprise pick in the India squad, the veteran offie would have wanted to have a good season heading into the big event. But he has struggled so far.
5 WICKETS IN 13 MATCHES

RAHUL CHAHAR
While Chahar had done well in the India leg, he struggled to hit the right lengths upon resumption in the UAE. Mumbai ended up dropping him for the last few matches.
13 WICKETS IN 11 MATCHES

BHUVNESHWAR KUMAR
At his best, Bhuvi is one of the pre-eminent bowlers in this format. But his numbers this season were far from satisfactory. In 11 matches, he managed just six wickets.
6 WICKETS IN 11 MATCHES

JASPRIT BUMRAH
Not one of Bumrah's standout seasons. But there is no need to worry. He will be expected to hit his strides by the time India play Pakistan in their opening game on October 24.
21 WICKETS IN 14 MATCHES

VARUN CHAKRAVARTHY
The mystery spinner needs to be protected in the field, but his strengths as a bowler make up for his weaknesses. Among the top 10 wicket-takers in the tournament.
18 WICKETS IN 16 MATCHES

SHARDUL THAKUR
Having been overlooked initially, the scarcity of pace bowling options seems to have helped Shardul get the nod. Carries the happy knack of picking wickets at critical stages.
18 WICKETS IN 15 MATCHES

MOHD SHAMI
Shami can be a bit hit-and-miss in this format. If he is to be trusted by Kohli & Co in the World Cup, he will have to be more accurate with his yorkers in the final overs.
19 WICKETS IN 14 MATCHES

Abrar brings Jammu back on country's athletics map

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

ABRAR Choudhary always had a liking for running but it was not before 2019 he started pursuing it seriously. But it was not easy to find a training facility in Jammu, which unfortunately doesn't have a synthetic track. As has been the trend in Jammu, he started training under Ramesh Sharma, a retired SAI athletics coach. Given his penchant for running, the coach soon referred him to Rohtash Siwach, who trains quarter-milers at the Chhotu Ram Stadium in Rohtak, Haryana.

Abrar immediately shifted his base in December last year, and within 10 months clinched a 400m gold medal in the under-20 age category in the 3rd National Open 400m Championships at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, New Delhi on Tuesday. By doing so, he also become the first athlete from the Valley to finish on the top of the podium in recent times. "We don't have a synthetic track in Jammu because of which I shifted to Rohtak. It's difficult to stay away from family but you have to make sacrifices if you dream of representing the country," Abrar, whose father is a small-time farmer, told this daily.

"He is stubborn. If he decides something, he will leave no stone unturned to make it happen," said Sharma, Abrar's first coach. Siwach also termed him a dedicated athlete. "He is a hard worker, who never shies away from putting in those extra efforts. He follows my instructions religiously, which is why he has improved a lot in the last few months," said Siwach. The coach, however, feels Abrar still needs a couple of more years to develop.

Ahead of Vijayadashami, Bengaluru celebs share their festive plans with CE

FUN, FOOD & FAMILY

ANILA KURIAN AND SANATH PRASAD

After a tumultuous year owing to the pandemic, Bengalureans are ready to let their hair down and ring in the festive season. From doing up their homes specially for the festivities to organising low-key get-togethers, celebrities are doing them all this Vijayadashami.

VIJAY RAGHAVENDRA, actor

Think Dasara, think Mysuru and Mangaluru. That's how it's always been for me. Unfortunately, I cannot go to Mysuru or Mangaluru this year because of my shooting schedules. However, my wife is going to Chamundeshwari temple for the celebrations.

ANU PRABHAKAR, actor

My mother-in-law, mother and I hosted a festive meal for our family on Wednesday. After I met Raghu [Mukherjee], I started pandal hopping, visiting different Durga pandals too in Bengaluru. This is always vibrant and energetic. Raghu and I plan to visit the pandal on Dashami in Hebbal.

SANGEETHA SRINGERI, actor

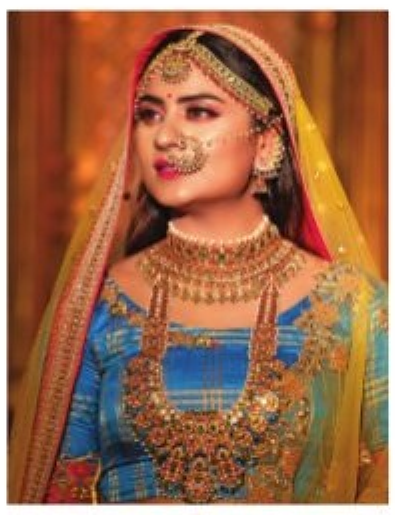
As an 'army kid', I grew up celebrating festivals of every faith. But Dasara was one of those grand celebrations when I'd purchase new outfits every day. When I did my first tele-serial, HaraHara Mahadeva, I learnt the significance of the festival. For me, it is about celebrating women.

INCHARA RAO, playback singer

Although I will be at work today, I'll be going to my aunt's place to relish some habbada oota. Growing up, the celebration was always simple with family reunions and pooja every day. Each day would have a specific theme. It won't be the same without my family here but given the times we are in, I'll try and make the most of it with my aunt.

VANI GANAPATHY, dancer

Having grown up in Mumbai, my parents loved celebrating the festival of dolls. When they moved from there to Chennai in the '90s, they asked if we children would like to carry forward the tradition and I volunteered to keep the dolls. The ones I have are over 100 years old. We love decorating our homes and having family and friends over. This year, we've kept the celebration low-key. My sister, Padmini Chandra, and her grandchildren will be coming over to celebrate Vijayadashami.



DEEPIKA DAS, actor

Ayudha Puja is very special for me. I ensure I worship my make-up kit because that is what gives me my bread and butter. This year keep my fashion accessories will also be part of the puja. Food-wise, I'm looking forward to my mum's 'Hesarubele Payasa'.

RAKSHITA SURESH, singer

As a true Mysurean, I am missing the Dasara celebrations owing to my work schedule. I am offering my pranams through video calls with my mother who is now in Mysuru. Giant wheel, Mysore Palace, Chamundi Hills and my Ajji's gombe mane — this sums up my Dasara celebrations. Thanks to technology, my cousins are keeping me in loop as they continue to enjoy the festivities.

In Sanskrit, 'kona' means angle and 'asana' means pose. It is a side stretching, standing pose that provides a deep opening in the sides of the body. Along with the spine, it also gives a good stretch to your arms and legs. It makes your spine flexible and tones your abdomen. It opens the trunk and improves balance and concentration It is usually performed in two parts, facing left, and then facing right.

STEPS
- Stand straight with your feet hip-width apart. Keep your arms alongside your body.
- Breathing in, raise your left arm up. Point the fingers towards the ceiling. Feel a nice opening in your left shoulder.
- Breathing out, bend to the right. Keep your chest facing forward and your left arm pointing up. Keep both knees straight.
- Turn your head to look up at the left palm.
- Hold your torso at a steady angle towards the right. Straighten your elbows.
- Notice the stretch in your left leg; your foot must be firm on the mat. The stretch should affect each leg joint.
- Inhale, bring your body back to the center.
- Exhale as you bring the left arm down. Observe any changes in your sense of arm balance as you inhale and exhale again.
- Repeat with the right arm and bring your upper body to a steady angle towards the left. Keep your chest forward, stretching your right side.

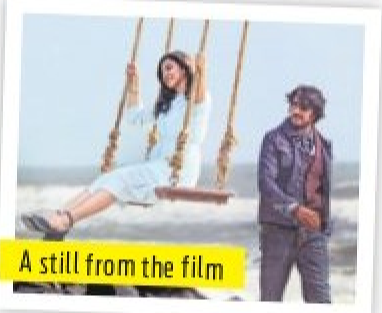
SUDEEP: CINEMA IS A RISKY BUSINESS, BUT SEQUELS ARE FUN

A SHARADHAA

KICHCHA Sudeep has created huge anticipation with the character Ghost in Kotigobba 3, which is set to hit theatres on October 14. As fans are wondering what the USP of the third part is, Sudeep tells us that apart from his dual roles Satya and Shiva, he played in Kotigobba 2, this Ghost role in the third instalment will be the highlight of the Kotigobba 3. "He is the core element of the film, and I can't reveal more than that," Sudeep says in this interview with CE. However, debutant director Shiva Karthik, who has helmed Kotigobba 3, revealed in his interview with CE that Ghost is like the modern-day Robinhood. When asked about the same, Sudeep says that people should experience it in theatres. "Also, the lead character of Kotigobba 2 has always been like Robinhood, who strives for the betterment of people. He will continue to do the same in the third part as well. However, the decorum is different," says Sudeep.



A still from the film

When there's no expectation, your existence in the field becomes a question mark

Kotigobba is a franchise, which began with legendary actor Vishnuvardhan. Now, it is carried forward by Sudeep. "If a franchise keeps growing, it means the previous film in it has done really well, and that's the case with Kotigobba 3," says Sudeep.

When asked if making a sequel involves some risk, he opines, "Cinema itself is a risky business. But I guess sequels are happiness. It means the audience liked the first part. Working on a new film is stressful because we don't know how it is going to go. On the other hand, I consider sequels as leisure and relaxing affairs. In any film, we all take chances. I can give examples like Rocky 4, Fast and Furious 9... those are my inspirations and not those which flopped. Having said that, sequels are bound to set high expectations, but that shouldn't stop us. Expectations are something that will help us deliver the best. When there is no expectation, your existence in the field becomes a question mark."

Costumes don't make me an actor

Sudeep will be seen in a new avatar for his Ghost role in the film, and talking about the look, he says, "It is a kind of an attire, which stands out and gives a unique twist to the character. Sequels are bound to take the franchise to the next level, and the team worked hard towards it, which I guess helped. It felt good to look at myself in the attire. However, just wearing costumes does not make me an actor, and the outfit has got nothing to do with your personality. It is all in the mind, and costumes just help you," he says.

Shooting offshore was a good experience

Kotigobba 3 is a local story that goes international. Made on a big budget, the movie was filmed in two foreign locations – Serbia and Poland. Sudeep says that he enjoyed the experience of shooting the film offshore. "I liked the team's discipline and the whole new protocols. It was good to watch how the police operated during the shooting process. Secondly, I love cars and watching drivers having fun. I thoroughly enjoyed the chase sequence - one of the highlights in the film," he reveals.

First-timer Shiva Karthik handled many names

Sudeep came up with the idea for Kotigobba 3, which was later developed by debutant director Shiva Karthik. Sharing a few words about the debutant's work, Sudeep says that Shiva Karthik has put three years of hard work into this film. "For a first-timer, he managed well to handle too many names. He has done his best, and I hope he gets what he deserves," says Sudeep.

"Between the start and release of Kotigobba 3, we saw a change in the way audiences perceive cinema; their mentalities are different today. With corona being a major roadblock, a big challenge lies in front of us. Everyone – from producer Surappa Babu to the distributors – has done their best. The trailer has done well, and we are yet to see how the film is going to do," he says.

I don't talk about breakfast at dinner

Sudeep says that making Kotigobba 4 is not impossible as long as the intentions are right. "Another sequel just for the sake of the business is a wrong idea. A sequel should have content. I don't want to talk about breakfast at dinner. Right now, I wish to stick to Kotigobba 3. It is important to learn whether people want more of Kotigobba rather than keep churning out sequels," he says.

Directed by Rohit Dhawan, the film also stars Paresh Rawal, Manisha Koirala, Ronit Roy and Sachin Khedekar.

Allu Arjun's Ala Vaikunthapurramuloo was directed by Trivikram Srinivas. The film became the third highest-grossing Telugu film of all time. Shehzada is produced by Bhushan Kumar, Allu Arvind, and Aman Gill. The film will be shot at locations in Mumbai and Delhi in the upcoming months.

Rohit, known for making Dishoom and Desi Boyz, will collaborate with composer Pritam for the third consecutive time for Shehzada. Producer Bhushan Kumar said that he had been trying to make a big-scale film for a long time, and that Shehzada is the perfect one.
